LOS ANGELES, JAN. 18.—A SPECIAL FROM SAN BERNARDINO SAYS: A ROBBER STOLE A BOX CONTAINING $6500 IN GOLD BULLION BOUND FOR THE SAN FRANCISCO MINT FROM AN EXPRESS TRUCK AT BARSTOW AT 3 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING. THE BULLION

WITH MUCH OTHER EXPRESS MATTER WAS BEING TRANSFERRED FROM THE WESTBOUND OVERLAND TRAIN TO LOS ANGELES TO THE SAN FRANCISCO TRAIN. IN THE SEMI-DARKNESS AROUND THE STATION THE THIEF READILY DISCOVERED THE VALU-ABLE BOX AND WALKED OFF WITH IT. OFFICERS WERE NOTIFIED OF THE THEFT BY THE MESSENGER OF THE SAN FRANCISCO TRAIN, WHO MISSED IT WHILE CHECKING UP. THE BULLION IS TOO HEAVY TO BE CONCEALED AND IT IS BELIEVED THE THIEF HAS BURIED THE TREASURE NEAR BARSTOW.

MYSTERY SOLVED; MISSING LAD'S BODY IS FOUND

Remains of Little Willie Jardling Are Discovered by Hunters.

The mystery which has for four days shrouded the disappearance of Willie Jardling, the ten-year-old son of William Jardling, who resides at 1012 Twenty-fifth avenue, East Oakland, was today solved through the efforts of TRIBUNE reporters.

The body of the boy lies on a slab in the morgue at Martinez, Contra Costa county, a victim of the snow which mantles the Berkeley foothills. The body was found yesterday near the Contra Costa county line by hunters, and was removed to the morgue at Martinez. Here an autopsy showed that death had been caused by exposure.

Evidently the little fellow had wandered over the Berkeley hills until he had become exhausted and sank into the snow to die.

When found there was nothing on the body which led to an identification, and the authorities of Contra Costa county labeled the body "unknown."

TRIBUNE reporters who were working on the mysterious disappearance of Willie Jardling became possessed of clues which led them to believe that the body at the Martinez morgue was that of the missing boy. Further investigation resulted in the complete identification of the remains.

And so the mystery shrouding the disappearance of little Willie Jardling has been solved.

SCHMITZ AND RUEF OBEY ORDERS TO BE IN COURT

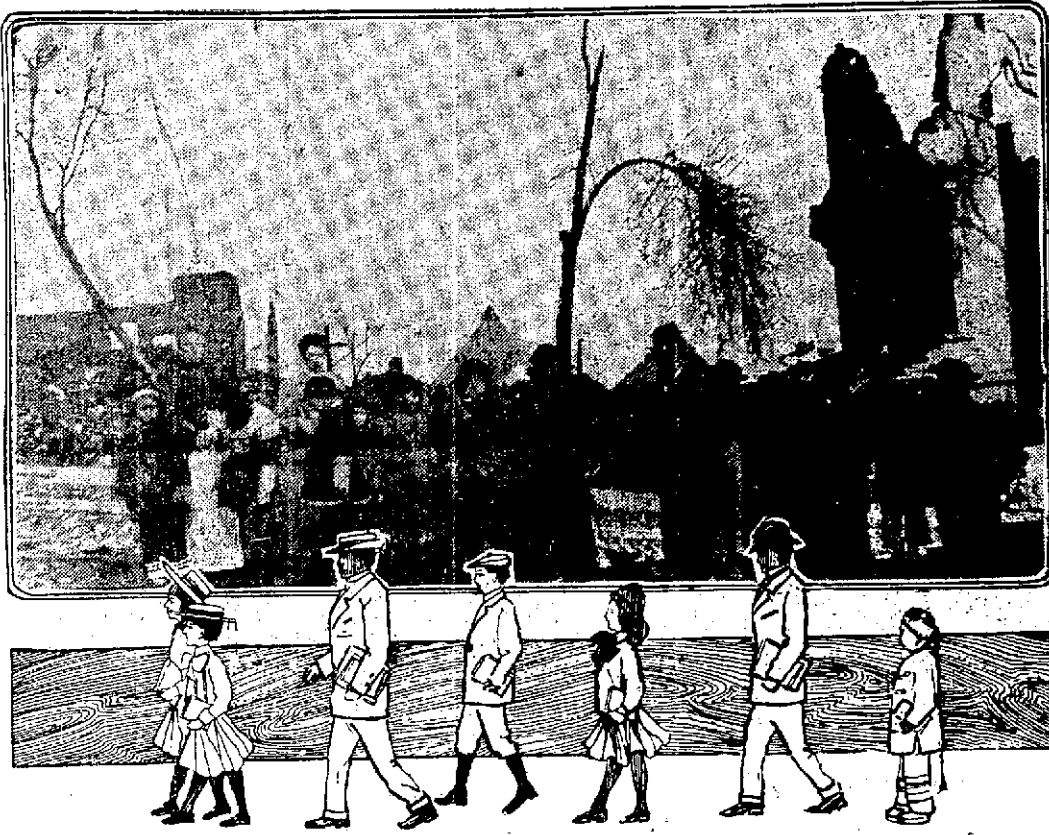

Attorneys for Indicted Men Make Concessions in Action to Dismiss Indictments.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—Both Mayor Schmitz and Abraham Ruef were in court today in compliance with the order made by Judge Dunne yesterday commanding them to be present at the disposition of the motions made on their behalf to dismiss the indictments for perjury. But the motions were not disposed of, although something of a concession was made

UNITED STATES SUES IN BEHALF OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The United States has begun two suits in San Francisco for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the treaty with Japan giving to the Japanese equal school advantages. One of the actions is brought in the Supreme Court of the State of California, in the name of a Japanese child, for the purpose of obtaining a writ of mandamus to compel his admission to one of the public schools from which he is excluded by the action of the Board of Education. The proceeding in the second suit is a comprehensive bill in equity filed by the United States in the Federal Circuit Court, in which the members of the Board of Education, the superintendent of schools and all of the principals of the various primary and grammar schools of San Francisco are made defendants.

With a Fortune to Command, This Man Prefers to Pass Away in Squalor.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 18.—Bank books found at the home of John Fleming, who died yesterday afternoon at the Receiving Hospital, show that the man has on deposit in different banks about $12,000. Fleming lived in a filthy shack at 2237 Alameda avenue.

Yesterday morning neighbors heard his groans and broke into the house where they found him lying on the floor. The ambulance was summoned and Fleming taken to the Receiving

BABIES ARE EATEN BY STARVING PEOPLE

Human Flesh Sold to Famine - Stricken China; Suffering by the Hundred.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 18.—Further advices received from Shanghai tell of increasing horrors of the great famine in Central China.

A correspondent of the Echo de Chine says that in two districts, Sinsow and Paichow, starving people are eating their children.

Plants and grass, which have furnished food for many, have disappeared and there is not even roots to eat.

The famine stricken people are being driven back to the cities of the famine district, the officials refusing to allow refugees to take the road.

The correspondent of the Shanghai paper says the cases of cannibalism are many.

He investigated a number and many of them absolutely are correct.

In the absence of ordinary food he found human flesh being sold.

He received therefore a broker's commission of two per cent. It is stated that Almy disposed of the stock to the Wallace H. Hopkins Company of Chicago. Almy passes his winters here at the hotel.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—The Government of the United States took official hand yesterday in the question of excluding the Japanese from the public schools of this city that are attended by the white children. Acting at the instance of Attorney-General Charles J. Bonaparte and United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin, M. Aoki, father of the Japanese boy refused admission to Redding Primary School yesterday morning, filed suit yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court of California and in the Federal Court to compel his son's admission.

Bonaparte and Devlin, in the name of the United States Government, appended to these suits a statement explaining the position of the Government and asking that it be made a party thereto.

The Supreme Court is petitioned to issue a writ of mandate to compel Miss Mary Agnes Deane, principal of Redding Primary School, to permit Aoki's son, Keikichi Aoki, to attend the fourth grade together with the white children. The second suit is an action to enjoin the principals of all grammar and primary schools of San Francisco, the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools Alfred Roncovieri from prohibiting Aoki or any other Japan-born Japanese to enter the graded schools.

Before it adjourned yesterday, the Supreme Court issued an alternative writ of mandate, returnable February 11.

BURKE PREDICTS VICTORY.

William G. Burke, city attorney, who will defend the school authorities, declared last night that the interference of the government was an attempt to trample on the principle of State's rights. He said that the school authorities had the law on their side and would prove their right in court to exclude the Japanese from the white schools. He charged Attorney-General Bonaparte with bringing the suit on narrow grounds, instead of the broad grounds agreed upon with Attorney Devlin. He will offer a bill to the legislature on Monday amending the act in the Political Code relating to

RIVERS ARE MENACING SOUTHERN LANDS!

People Being Driven Away From Homes; Damage Amounts to Enormous Sum.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—There has been a rise of from three to four feet during the past twenty-four hours in the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Louisville. Conditions indicate a stage of thirty-six feet, if not more, at Louisville, and fifty-four feet at Madison by Saturday night.

The river rose nearly two feet last night, and is coming up steadily. Many mercantile houses have been compelled to remove stocks. City firemen have been busy all day removing families from their homes in the residence sections. All invalids were taken to the city hospital in ambulances.

River traffic is paralyzed and the business houses along the river front are suffering heavy loss.

Traffic on the interurban lines was suspended owing to the flooded tracks. The water from the Ohio river has backed up into Harris creek and Goose creek and has made a lake ser-

BOTH ITALY AND RUSSIA SHAKEN BY BIG QUAKE

No Lives Are Reported Lost, but the People Are Thrown Into a Panic.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Two violent earthquake shocks were experienced at Kuba, government of Baku, at 5:30 this morning.

Kuba is a fortified town in the province of Baku, situated on the south side of the River Kuba. It has a population of over 16,000.

UNDINE, Italy, Jan. 18.—A severe earthquake shock was felt at Tolmezzo, twenty-nine miles from this place, at 4:20 this morning. The inhabitants, panic stricken, fled from their houses. There was no loss of life.

Tolmezzo is situated at the southern foot of the Carnic Alps, near the Tagliamento. It is noted for its immense rainfall, the annual precipitation amounting to about 96 inches.

The population of the town is about 2000 and the commune over 8000.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Navy Department has received through Admiral Evans a wireless message sent by Admiral Davis at Kingston, to the effect that at 2:30 this morning Captain Pendleton, of the battleship Missouri, had reported that the battleships Indiana and Missouri and the torpedo boat Whipple were the only warships in Kingston harbor.

Food and tents were badly needed. At the hour of report, Admiral Davis was ashore conferring with the Governor of Jamaica, and the situation was quiet.

J. Porez, the Cuban consul, was killed in the earthquake and his wife was slightly injured.

WIRELESS REPORT
SAYS: "400 DEAD,
500 IN HOSPITAL"

CAIMANERA, Cuba, Jan. 18.—Rear

Admiral Davis, who went to Kingston, Jamaica, with the American ships, sent a wireless report to Rear Admiral Evans at Guantanamo this morning.

His dispatch followed: "Missouri and Indiana anchored at Kingston at 6:30 this morning. Kingston almost totally destroyed. Four hundred killed, about 500 in hospital. City now quiet. There were plenty of doctors, but short dressings. Have supplied all could spare."

The American torpedo boat Whipple left Kingston this morning and is due at Guantanamo at 10 o'clock tonight with full details of the situation at Kingston.

Rear Admiral Evans first heard of the disaster on Tuesday night by means of an intercepted wireless dispatch, and prepared to send his ships to the scene. Wednesday morning he received a cablegram from Governor Magoon, asking him to send medical supplies. The Whipple started instantly at a speed of twenty-five knots, carrying all the surgical supplies the fleet could spare. The battleships Missouri and Indiana followed, and both are now in Kingston harbor, but are unable to communicate by wireless with Admiral Evans, owing to the intervening mountain. Communication, however, is maintained through the steamer Colon, which is lying off the port.

Rear Admiral Evans sent the battleships because he knew no English troops were in Kingston, and he feared looting by the negroes there.

OAKLAND MAY HAVE ANOTHER OPERA HOUSE

The James Moffitt Estate Property on Franklin and Eleventh Said to Be Wanted for Theater.

Although R. R. Read, the agent of the Blake & Moffitt and the James Moffitt estates, declines to disclose the names of those who desire to obtain a ninety-nine-year lease on the property belonging to the latter estate situated on the southwest corner of Franklin and Eleventh street, a well-informed contractor states positively that it is being sought by San Francisco capitalists, who want to build an opera house on the premises. The lot has a frontage of one hundred feet on Franklin street, and extends westerly along Eleventh street for 225 feet.

If such an improvement is located there, it will revolutionize Franklin and Eleventh street property. The corner at the southeast corner, 757 1/2 feet, has already declared that, in the event the proposed opera house is erected on the property, he will erect a ten-story Class A building on his own lot. The improvements now covering the Moffitt lot are of the cheapest and flimsiest order, most of them being rickety one-story shells. They are, however, all tenanted, and the leases of some of the tenants have from sixteen months to two years yet to run.

BIG DEAL IS MADE IN CASTRO STREET REALTY

M. J. Laymance Becomes Owner of the Pacific Press Property, Between Eleventh and Twelfth.

A deal was closed yesterday whereby the Pacific Press property on Castro between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, passed into the ownership of M. J. Laymance, for a price approaching $50,000. Last summer the property was supposed to have been bought by the Salvation Army. But that deal fell through. Mr. Laymance subsequently secured a bond on the property through Walter E. Logan, and the transfer was completed yesterday.

The property has a frontage of 200 feet on Castro, 150 feet on Eleventh and 125 feet on Twelfth, and is covered with improvements.

Mr. Laymance reports that he is not greatly surprised what changes will be made in these improvements.

The large building, however, in which the printing and bookbinding plants of the Pacific Press Publishing Company were formerly housed, will be remodelled into an apartment house.

GETS GOIN ON BOGUS CHECK

William Hamelin, a Vehicle Dealer, Victim of a Slick Stranger.

As a result of the manipulations of a bogus check operator, William Hamelin of Third and Washington streets is mourning the loss of $24. A stranger visited Hamelin's shop yesterday and said he wished to purchase a wagon. A vehicle, priced at $25, was selected by the customer, who offered Hamelin a check of $44 in payment, intending to place a deposit of $20 on his purchase.

Hamelin cashed the check and gave the stranger $24 in coin. The check is not good. It was drawn on the Oakland Bank of Savings in favor of John Blake and signed by James Cook. Blake told Hamelin that he was a lumberer in this city.

STOCK BROKER UNDER ARREST

Chicago Man in Pasadena Is Charged With Fraud in Mining Deal.

PASADENA, Jan. 10.—Miles Almy, a Chicago stock broker, was arrested here today on a charge of fraud, preferred by G. W. Burton of Goldfield, in connection with the sale of 10,000 shares of stock of the Boston Greenwater Copper Company, which, it is alleged, were not of value represented.

Dr. J. Grant Lyman, a Pasadena physician, fled the city a few days ago, when a warrant came from Goldfield charging him with a fraud in connection with the sale of the block of stock. Lyman was accused of getting $11,000 under false pretenses. No trace of Lyman has been found by officers who have searched for him since his disappearance.

Almy, who gave bond in the sum of $2500, claims that he acted simply as a representative of Dr. Lyman and

JURY TRIALS ARE DEMANDED

Eleven Men Charged With Accepting Bets Appear in Court.

The cases of the eleven men arrested yesterday on charges of accepting bets, in a raid by the police on alleged hand-book shops in this city, were called in the police court this morning, and the defendants were represented by Attorneys A. L. Frick and Tom Rindley. Pleas of not guilty were entered and jury trials demanded.

The names of the defendants in Department One and the time of their hearings, each on two charges, are as follows: J. Herlihy, January 31, and February 5; J. Wilson, February 7 and 12; C. E. Quinley, February 15 and 20; Joseph Laval, March 1 and 5; John Young, March 8, 12 and 14; Lee Parsons, March 18 and 22.

Those who appeared in Department Two of the Police court had their trials set for different dates between January 22 and February 3. The defendants in these cases are Jesse Jarvis, David Connor, J. W. Fowler, Alexander Forbes and George Recker.

It is understood that a test case is to be made and that the disposition of the charges will rest upon the decision reached in the first trial.

Another arrest was made this morning, Irving Weber of Fourth and Broadway, being taken into custody. Weber was released on bail.

PILES CURED IN 5 TO 14 DAYS. PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles in 5 to 14 days or money refunded.

LIBRARY PATRON IS VICTIM OF THIEF

Another patron of the free public library was made the victim yesterday of a sneak thief, who steals overcoats from the rack in the library. Louis Alverts of 373 Sixth street, has notified the police that he left his cravat and overcoat in the library for a short time yesterday and the garment was stolen.

THIEVES ENTER TWO DWELLINGS

Burglars Ransack Homes of Frank Harris and Mrs. C. Massa.

The home of Frank Harris at 665 Seventh street was forcibly entered yesterday afternoon. The front door of Harris' house was broken open by the burglar, who, after ransacking the place stole a gold watch, a gold chain and $1 in coin. The police have received a report of the burglary.

Another home, that of Mrs. C. Massa at 321 Chester street, was also burglarized yesterday, the burglar obtaining $50 in gold coin, two $5 bills, one $10 bill and $10 in silver.

SUES TO RECOVER MANEY FROM BANK

Mrs. E. Teachoni, known also as Mrs. F. E. Hilden, has begun suit in the Superior Court to recover $123.55 from the Union National Bank. The money was deposited by her deceased husband, who was killed in a railroad accident last December. A check for $1000 was made in her favor before he died, but the law prevents the bank from meeting the demand of a check after a person is dead. It will be necessary for the widow to have an order from the court. The bank authorities simply want to complete a legal transaction.

SNEAK THIEF GETS $45 FROM ROOM

A sneak thief entered the room of Martin O. Grista in the Eureka hotel last night and stole $45 in coin. Grista resides at 1134 Santa Fe avenue, but stayed down town last night. His room was entered in his absence and the money was stolen. Grista has notified the police of the theft.

The new Mexican minister to Washington, Don Enrique C. Creel, is one of the strongest men in the southern republics. He is the son of a Kentucky man who went to Chihuahua as an United States consular officer many years ago and there married a beautiful Mexican girl. Senor Creel has long been a prominent figure in northern Mexico and has for some years been Governor of the State of Chihuahua. The Kentucky strain in his blood is evidenced by his name, which is the Spanish equivalent for Henry Clay.

TWO DEPUTIES CHOSEN

Dr. Charles R. Tisdale, the County Coroner, has appointed Walter W. Graham and George L. Gregory as his deputies. The new assistants took their oath of office this morning.

ANTI-TRUST SUITS FILED

Violation of Oil and Packing Terms Alleged in Kansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 18.—Suits for alleged violation of anti-trust laws of the state were filed today by the district attorney against Armour & Company, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, the Hammond Packing Company, Morris & Company, and the Cudahy Packing Company for amounts aggregating $1,333,000.

The present action is based on the alleged continued violation of Arkansas anti-trust law after the first suit was filed last October, the judgment asked for being in the nature of penalties.

What was regarded as a test suit was decided by the Supreme Court last week in the case of the state against the Hammond Packing Company. The validity of the law was upheld in that case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Senate today agreed to the Kittredge resolution instructing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to investigate the "lumber trust."

OAKLAHOMA WOULD PURCHASE LANDS

GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 18.—The special committee of the constitutional convention on segregated coal and asphalt lands in the Indian Territory today made its final report to the convention in the form of a congressional memorial notifying congress and President Roosevelt that the State of Oklahoma desires to open registration with the federal government and at an early date purchase the lands.

The committee is of the opinion that the lands can be purchased for about $15,000,000. The lands embrace one of the most valuable mineral deposits in the southwest, and the state proposes State ownership and State operation.

LAKE STEAMER TO BE LAUNCHED

New Passenger Boat Will Be the Largest of Her Class on the Lakes.

The million-dollar passenger steamer building at the Wyandotte yard of the American Shipbuilding Company for the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company, will be launched a week from Saturday. The new boat, which will be operated between Cleveland and Detroit, will be the largest boat of her class on the lakes. She will be 400 feet long and 14 feet wider than the steamer City of Detroit, which is the largest boat on the route.

The big side-wheeler will be 402 feet over all, 380 feet keel, 54 feet beam and 22 feet deep. She will have plenty of power and will be one of the fastest boats on the lakes. A name for the steamer has been selected, but it will not be announced until the day of the launching. The officers of the ship have not been appointed, but Captain A. J. McKay, for a number of years master of the steamer City of Detroit, will sail her.

Among innovations are to make their appearance with the new boat. These include passenger elevators, open fire-places and private telephones in every room. But perhaps the most novel feature will be the private veranda leading from the parlors. These parlors are the occupants of the rooms the same degree of privacy as would be obtained in the most ornate home. There will be a complete sprinkler system throughout the vessel, the first of its kind installed in a passenger steamer. Communication between the deck and above will be maintained by wireless telegraph.

The furnishings of the steamer will be 400 yards of carpet for the parlors and staterooms, 3400 pieces of silver, 5000 pieces of crockery, 5000 made comfortable with 2000 mattresses, 4000 sheets, 4000 pillow cases, 2000 blankets and 5000 towels. Three thousand napkins round out the equipment. The big steamer will be ready to go in place the steamer City of Cleveland, which will be placed on another route—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

It is quite noticeable how many people are choosing pointed foxskins and, indeed, they who can afford them, silver foxskins, for it is unmistakable that no other fur quite so well harmonizes with any and every color of frock as these particular white flecked brown black foxskins. Pointed foxskins harmonize with any and every frock and tailor suit.

These pointed foxskins are real fox. It is only that the little white hairs are inserted in the pointed foxskin, but born there in the real live fox. Taffeta and foxskin are peculiarly charming in co-operation, another argument this for the taffeta frock.—Gentlewoman.

CONSIDERABLE INTEREST has been aroused of late among large advertisers as to the merits of certain publications in Oakland. Let's find the truth!

HERE'S A PROPOSITION: Take SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE—notice that 46,956 lines of advertising were published—compare any other publication in Northern California—and it will be shown that no other paper approaches this.

HERE'S ANOTHER—Consult any merchant or Real Estate Dealer as to which paper brings the returns—These two important facts prove conclusively that the paper that has the patronage is the paper that leads in circulation.

YOU CONCEDE THIS—That the paper that carries the greatest number of help wanted, houses for sale and other classified ads is the most widely circulated.

LEGISLATURE CONSIDERS THE JAPANESE QUESTION

Lively Debate Results Over Action and Matter Is Referred to a Committee.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—A concurrent resolution introduced in the Legislature today, touching the admission of Japanese into the public schools of San Francisco and the action brought in the Federal courts in the matter, was the feature of the day's sessions in both Senate and Assembly.

The resolution calls for the Attorney General of the State to appear in the actions brought in the courts, and he is to assist the authorities of the city and county of San Francisco in defense of the actions.

Senator Cammett presented the resolution in the Senate and this aroused a lively debate, resulting in reference to the Judiciary committee which will report back on next Tuesday morning. This resolution and the introduction of a few bills and petitions consumed the entire session of the Senate, which took a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

In the Assembly, Grove L. Johnson presented the concurrent resolution, which will be made a special order of business in the Assembly Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Johnson, in speaking for the resolution, said in part:

"This action in the Federal courts is the most important that has been before the State since the war of the Rebellion. It is a question of State sovereignty and will decide whether the courts, backed by the President, can force us to admit Japanese into our schools."

Numerous bills were introduced and referred to respective committees and, at 12:30, the Assembly adjourned.

Among the more important bills introduced in the Assembly this morning were:

By Eshelman, regulating rates of interest on obligations for money loaned.

By Finney, relative to county officers who are compelled to reside at county seats and providing hours they shall be at their offices.

By O'Brien, a bill to prevent the sale of dairy products secured from unsanitary animals.

By Strobridge, a bill recommended by the revision of school laws committee, for the medical examination of pupils in public schools.

By Collier, providing for licensing of land surveyors.

By Thompson of San Francisco, amending the purity of election laws.

By Lucas, providing for challenges in civil cases of jurors.

NINETY CHILDREN ARE KILLED IN ONE SCHOOLHOUSE

NOFOLK, Va., Jan. 12.—The wireless telegraph station at Cape Henry has received an official message from Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the North Atlantic fleet in West Indian waters, presumably referring to the Kingston disaster, and a message from Washington to Admiral Evans has been communicated to him on the flagship.

The message from the fleet commander is a brief one, but the wireless people decline to give out anything concerning either of the messages, claiming that both are official and that the contents or nature of the messages cannot be divulged.

The message from Admiral Evans was forwarded to the Cape Henry station.

The Cape Henry wireless station received the following message from the fleet commander:

"The message having come from Guantanamo, I have been informed that the ship, the Cape Henry, which was on the coast of Cuba, had been wrecked, with about 500 reported dead and wounded. The channel in the harbor of Kingston has shifted. This cannot be vouchsafed for."

Rattleships Missouri and Indiana entered harbor safely. Four hundred dead, five hundred in hospitals. Indications many slightly injured.

JAMAICAN RELIEF MEASURE PASSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The senate today passed the Jamaican relief bill immediately upon its receipt from the house, without discussion.

MANY AMERICANS DEAD OR MISSING RESULT OF QUAKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The latest official news of the Kingston disaster reached this city today from Guantanamo, Cuba, through Admiral Davis, who had received from the torpedo boat sent to Kingston on the torpedo boat "Vindicator," a brief wireless report of the situation in the stricken city.

Admiral Davis reported that Kingston was almost entirely destroyed; that 400 persons were killed and 500 were in the hospital. The dispatch was sent Thursday morning and further reported that Kingston was quiet. The Whipple started to return to Guantanamo with a fleet report of the situation yesterday and should have reached the American naval base during the night.

Direct advice of the Associated Press from Kingston, under date of January 10, reached this city today, stating that the disaster was as great as the calamities of San Francisco and Valparaiso.

Thousands of persons, it was then believed, had been killed, as the dead were recovered from the ruins in hundreds.

A number of Americans were among the killed. The city is in ruins, but the shipping in the harbor is safe, and aboard these vessels the wounded are being cared for.

The dispatch also stated that the topography of the country has been changed as a result of the earth disturbance and that the channel into Kingston harbor has been materially altered.

The body of Sir James Ferguson, who was killed, was found and buried on the day the dispatch was sent. There have been a number of shocks since the first disastrous one and tremors keep the people in a constant state of terror.

Havana reports a wireless message received there, stating that a tidal wave has changed the coast line of Jamaica and has left the south side of Kingston under water.

SHOWS DISPLEASURE AT LAWYER WISE

Judge Henry A. Melvin showed his displeasure this morning at participating in anything which Otto Irving Wise, a San Francisco attorney, had dealings.

During the argument of the defendant in the suit of Edwin Alwell vs. Mary C. Shauers for the foreclosure of a lien, the name of Attorney Wise was mentioned.

Judge Melvin promptly responded when the name was mentioned and exclaimed: "I cannot, with proper self-respect for myself, hear any case in which the name of that man Wise is involved."

The court dropped the matter at that point and continued the case for one week.

WIDOW GETS $300 CONSCIENCE MONEY

CUMBERLAND, Md., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Martha J. Ervin, widow of Kingwood, W. Va., was the recipient of $300 conscience money today.

Mrs. Ervin's property was sold for taxes to J. C. Ralphsnyder, lawyer and politician, for $200. Mrs. Ervin tried to reclaim the property, but lost in court.

Ralphsnyder was engaged to wed Miss Lilla Elliot, to whom he donated the property. The engagement was broken off, and Ralphsnyder went to the Klondike, where he made a fortune, and where he died.

The property remained in the hands of Miss Elliot, who, in the meantime, married a clergyman, to whom she sold the property. She wrote to Mrs. Ervin, saying she did not regard the property as hers, and asked what amount would satisfy her. She offered $500, and a check was promptly mailed.

the admission of children to the public schools to read that Indian, Chinese, Malay, Korean, Japanese and all Mongolian children must be taught in schools apart from the white children.

"I will not be responsible for the consequences of this action," said Attorney Burke last night. "If there is war with Japan, the responsibility will rest on Roosevelt's shoulders. He started the fuss and he must take care of it."

M. Aoki, the father, was made guardian of his son yesterday for the purpose of bringing the suits.

The specific evidence recited in the petitions is the refusal of Miss Mary Agnes Deane, principal of the Redding primary school, Pine street, near Leitch, to admit the Japanese boy, Kikuchi Aoki, to the fourth grade when he made his application for entrance yesterday morning. She is made defendant in the case before the Supreme Court, which is a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel her to accept him as a pupil in her school.

The suit before the Federal court is much broader. There action is brought to enjoin the principals of all grammar and primary schools of San Francisco, the board of education and Superintendent of Schools Alfred Roncovieri, from prohibiting Aoki or any other graded schools.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

Young Women and Men of Oakland Finish School With High Honors.

The commencement exercises of the Oakland High school were held in the school assembly hall last night and were largely attended.

The hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The young lady graduates were rowing in white and presented a very attractive appearance.

The program was well selected. It was opened with an invocation by Rev. Mr. Lomborough, followed by remarks to the class by Principal J. H. Pond, in which the student was advised to make the most of the life he or she was entering and enjoined to continue the search for knowledge of which the years in the High school being left behind were only the beginning.

Professor Pond's address was followed by a violin solo by Miss Evelyn Miller, a member of the graduating class, after which Miss Florence Krause delivered an essay on "The Worth While in School Life." Robert Jackson spoke on "Student Affairs Committees," following which Miss Miller rendered another violin solo.

Rev. Raymond C. Brooks made an address to the graduates and the exercises were concluded with the presentation of diplomas by Dr. A. H. Pratt, president of the Board of Education.

The exercises at the school were followed by a reception given the graduates by Mrs. Ella Bacon-Soule, at her home on Monte Vista avenue, a son of hers, Douglas Bacon-Soule, being a member of the class.

The following are the members of the graduating class: Harry Carroll, under Virginia Allen, Henry Raymond Angwin, Rebecca Pearl Averell, Philip Ellich, Grace M. Criss, Ralph Countryman, Amos W. Elliott, Ruth Ferguson, Alexander McRae Jr., Robert MacDonald, Benjamin H. Moxon, Laurence K. Marshall, A. Hugh Miller, Sydney Miller, Albert S. Munn, Philip P. Ringolsky, Vera Conover, C. Robinson, Fred Easton, Gordon, George, Gentry, North, Hal George Hatfield, Edith Harmon, Ralph High, Leora Houghton, Robert P. Jackson, Belle Jacobs, Loreta Knapp, K. senae Krause, Edwin Sargent, H. JUDGE FAVORS A WHIPPING

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—"I wish there were a whipping-post in San Francisco," said Judge Shortall when the case of August Schwartz, accused of beating a horse to death, was called.

"Those who hold up their hands in horror at the mention of this relic of barbarism might be less fervent in their denunciation if they were familiar with the number of cases of this nature which are brought into court. This man has a wife and three small children, who are dependent upon his daily earnings for their living. I understand that his wife is quite ill at the present time. If I send him to the county jail for six months, I will bring a great deal of suffering to his family. If there were a whipping-post here, I would certainly send this man to it, so that the punishment might fall where it belongs, without affecting any innocent persons." The case was continued until Schwartz's home conditions could be investigated.

LAW ALLOWS KNEADING DOUGH WITH FEET

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Kneading dough with the feet is practiced in some of the Italian bakeries of New York City, according to a report by P. T. Sherman, Commissioner of Labor of the State. He says:

"Our inspectors have assayed to stop this, but have not been sustained by the courts, there being nothing positively illegal or unsanitary in the practice."

Mr. Sherman points out that while the practice may not of itself be unsanitary, the surroundings in which the bread is made in some shops make it dangerous. He says that many of the bakeries are in cellars, where the hotbeds of disease.

ILLINOIS TOWN UNDER WATER

Shawneetown Threatened With Repetition of Disaster of 1898.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 12.—As a result of the flood in the Ohio river, the levee at Shawneetown, Ill., broke this morning. Shawneetown lies in an elbow of the Ohio river and is protected by a dike. When the river is in flood the surface of the water is six to eight feet above the street level in the lower part of the town. In 1898 the city was inundated by the river, which broke through the dike on one side, and twenty-nine persons lost their lives. The dikes were repaired after this calamity.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 12.—Shawneetown, a village of 1300 population upon the bend of the Ohio river near the Indiana and Kentucky State lines, is threatened with repetition of the great flood of 1898 which devastated the country for miles around and caused loss of life and great suffering. The water at noon today had reached 42 feet and was steadily rising. Heavy rains continue.

Secretary of State Rose today received a message asking that 60 tents be sent at once for the use of those driven from their homes. All the stores and buildings on the water front have been abandoned and the people are homeless.

News of the flood conditions at Shawneetown were communicated to Governor Deenen at Chicago by long distance telephone and he at once directed that Adjutant-General Scott send a supply of tents for the relief of the flood sufferers.

Every precaution is being taken by the adjutant-general to insure the safety of the people and property in the flooded district. Company F, Fourth Regiment, I. N. G., located at Mount Vernon, 75 miles from Shawneetown, will be possible to fold itself in readiness for direct service in case the levee breaks.

WINS SUIT IN HAMBURG

Insurance Company Ordered to Pay Up By German Court.

HAMBURG, Jan. 12.—Judgment has been given by the landgericht, or court of first instance, of Hamburg against the North German Insurance Company of Hamburg in favor of R. A. Crothers, proprietor of the Bulletin, for the full amount of his claim for loss caused by the great fire of April last.

Last October Attorney Eustace Cullinan on behalf of the Bulletin and a number of other claimants against the North German of Hamburg. The company declined to pay, or even to consider a compromise. Mr. Cullinan then employed a well known lawyer at Hamburg to commence an action, and he returned to San Francisco to prepare the evidence. It was the first action commenced in Germany against any of the watching German companies. Mr. Cullinan also, through the German press, advertised extensively the fact that most of the German companies were shirking their debts in San Francisco; a fact of which the German public were not until that time aware.

The court rules that the so-called "earthquake clause" in the North German Company's policy does not exempt it from liability to pay its losses in San Francisco.

According to the company's statement, its assets are sufficient to pay its debts in full, but it seems likely that the company will pay only the claimants who recover judgment in Hamburg.

GIRL'S DREAM WRECKED HOME

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12.—A young girl's dream, backed by a reported effort to induce her to give up home and mother for the glittering career of a successful prima donna is blamed for wrecking a once happy home, and separating husband and wife.

With a divorce trial as the probable final outcome, the despairing father has stirred to activity the police, the legal and the humane departments of the city.

And this unwelcome activity has been brought about by a beautiful 15-year-old girl, who signs to conquer music worlds.

"I have been separated from my husband and family because my pretty 15-year-old daughter, Edith on the stage," declared Mrs. William Wells, of 607 South Hill street, to the police yesterday afternoon.

Similar communication was made to humane officers and then the city prosecutor was visited by a view of punishment of the young lady to appear before the frontlites.

Two weeks ago, according to Mrs. Wells' story, she went to her apartment early in the evening only to find a note, signed by Alice Palmer, stating that the other members of the family had left the house. No reason, she says, was assigned for their departure and no address was left. Later she learned that her husband and daughter had gone to 626 West Tenth street.

Shortly before she left the Hill street apartments with her father, Miss Edith Wells was presented with a trunk by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woolworth of 417 West Seventh street. At the time, Mrs. Wells alleges, the Woolworths sought to induce her to leave home and go on the stage. She strenuously objected, taking the position that her daughter was too young and that the influences of the stage were not such as would be proper for a pretty girl of 15 years.

Mrs. Wells' father, Mr. Wells asserts, was so insistent that she contemplated visiting the police station to secure a warrant to prevent them from inducing the girl to leave home. She changed her mind, however, and succeeded for a time in talking the idea out of the girl's head. But the ambition recurred, and she again sought to induce her to leave home and go on the stage. She then turned to the Woolworths at lodge and other recitals and together they rehearsed songs and acts at home. Then trouble came and a final separation.

Wells was seen in his apartments on West Tenth street yesterday. He claimed that his wife had deserted him and that she was unreasonable in her demands.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Woolworth also were seen yesterday. They denied emphatically that had tried to induce the girl to leave home and go on the stage. Edith, however, said that Mrs. Woolworth had placed the matter in the hands of the police, and with the humane society was all Mrs. Wells would say last night.

"I have been separated from my husband and family because my pretty 15-year-old daughter, Edith on the stage," declared Mrs. William Wells, of 607 South Hill street, to the police yesterday afternoon.

Similar communication was made to humane officers and then the city prosecutor was visited by a view of punishment of the young lady to appear before the frontlites.

A WAITER

In a French restaurant, being infatuated with the cashier of the cafe, tried to win her affections by playing practical jokes at her expense. He was first discharged, then imprisoned and finally suicided. How much better he would have fared had he presented to her the luscious chef d'oeuvre of the confectioner's art, as they know so well how to fashion them in the French metropolis. It is a pretty hard thing for any woman to resist even though she is little inclined to the donor's over the street treatments at Lehnhardt's, for example, and ask yourself—what woman could resist a man who looks like this armed with such tempting weapons.

GOLD PUPILS SENT HOME

Shortage of Coal Closes the Doors of the Emeryville
School Building.

Two hundred and fifty pupils in the Emeryville school were sent home yesterday, the coal shortage causing the closing of the school until fuel can be obtained. For many days the children and teachers have shivered with the cold. Despite every effort of the board to go to the coal fields, the school has been closed. The health of the pupils and teachers had been menaced long enough, the officials decided, and so they closed the school. The pupils were instructed to return Monday morning, but the first of the week of the week will have been obtained. Secretary Farr of the school board and Principal Leacy declared that the school would remain closed until fuel was supplied. They have started hunting for coal.

WOMAN DEFIES
COURT AND LAW

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Municipal Judge Frank Crowe is criticised by his brother judges for failing to uphold the dignity of his court. He backed down when confronted today by Dr. Effie Lobdell, who refused to pay a $25 fine for contempt, refused to apologize and dared him to send her to jail. "If you don't pay the fine in five minutes I'll sentence you to thirty days in jail," said the Judge last night. "I will never pay it and will never apologize," replied the woman. The Judge weakened and gave her until the morning to pay or go to jail for six months. "I will never pay you a cent," answered the woman physician. "You are the rudest woman I ever met," commented the Judge. She appeared this morning and neither paid nor apologized, though her counsel importuned her to do one or the other. The counsel then made an apology for her, which the woman repudiated. Judge Crowe called off the fine and the threatened sentence. Miss Lobdell is famed as an equal suffragist and she chose this opportunity to show her contempt for man-made laws. She was subpoenaed to testify to the mistreatment of a child. She ignored the court and all its machinery.

BROTHERS NEVER SPOKE FOR YEARS

DERBY, Conn., Jan. 12.—For fifteen years two brothers, Henry and Charles Botsford, lived in the same house yet never spoke to each other. They resided on a farm near Derby, and yesterday when little Mary Brennan went to the house with a special dinner prepared for Henry, she found him lying on the floor unconscious. She called the brother, and summoned the neighbors, but he did not regain consciousness. Charles lived in the upper part of the house and cooked his own meals, and Henry lived down stairs all alone. Henry worked on his little farm, took eggs and vegetables to the city, five miles distant, on a wheelbarrow, and neighbors thought he barely eked out an existence. A bankbook was found, however, showing that he had over $800 in the Derby Savings Bank. In addition to owning the house in which the two brothers resided.

LAD 13 CONFESSES

ST. HELEN, Or., Jan. 12.—Bert Holman, the thirteen-year-old adopted son of Mrs. Sarah Ayres, confessed today that he had shot and killed his mother, whose dead body was found last night on her farm near here. At first the boy said that as he was preparing to go to bed he had heard the shot fired and heard some one running out of the house.

ABOUT THE LEMON.

A woman, lately emerged from the simple life and dwelling in an apartment in upper Broadway where there is hall service, and not up to the present-day slang, ordered a small package sent to her C. O. D. The article arrived while she was out shopping and the wrapper was in so bad condition that the hall boy refused to receive it. When she returned and made inquiry the boy said that a bundle had come, but rejected it. "I thought the seller was handing me a lemon," he added. "A lemon?" she cried. "Yes, a lemon," he replied. "The idea of his handing you a lemon!" she entered the elevator tempestuously, and the hall boy listened to the boy's efforts to explain.

EDSON ADAMS WANTS MORE MONEY FROM CITY Mayor Mott Believes He Can Secure Property by Condemnation Proceedings.

Edson F. Adams announces that he will refuse to accept the appraised valuation of the portion of the land he is proposed to purchase for park purposes. Since the bond election he has stated that he considers the price fixed by appraisers selected by the mayor as below the actual value of the property. Hence he intimates that he will not sell to the city unless forced to do so by a condemnation suit. The greater portion of the Adams' Point property, however, is owned by John Charles Adams, who, while loth to sell at the appraised figure, has not indicated that he will decline to make a conveyance to the city. Before the bond ordinance was finally passed, Mayor Mott had the property it is proposed to purchase appraised by a number of the real estate dealers in the city. It is the price placed on the property by these gentlemen that Mr. Adams disputes and says he will not accept. Mayor Mott is still sanguine that the matter of price will be amicably adjusted without litigation, but he is firmly opposed to the city paying more than what he deems a fair price for the property. He says he will be fair with every property holder, but if necessary is in favor of having a condemnation suit instituted and the question of value judicially determined.

EDSON ADAMS. Edson F. Adams claims that his share of the proposed park property is worth $166,000, while the price fixed by the apportionment is $121,000—less by $35,000. It is assessed for $35,000. One lot of four acres for $10,000 and another of ten acres for $25,000. "I am prepared before the Board of Public Works when the bond ordinance was under consideration and stated what I would take for my land, said Mr. Adams. "I went over each plot and placed a modest valuation on it. Some years ago the Adams Point land could have been purchased by the city for $240,000, but the offer was rejected, and the property has since enormously increased in value. I frankly and fairly told the Mayor and the City Council the value I set on it. "After I had made this flat statement of what I thought was a reasonable proposition, I found that the city government had cut my figure something like $35,000. Naturally no opinion was taken on the issue at that figure, and I was not interviewed further concerning the project. The bonds have been passed, and the city government will soon be treating with me concerning my holdings. It may be possible that, through a readjustment of figures on different pieces of property, my holdings at Adams Point may yet be bought at the amount which I originally named. My brother, John Charles Adams, owns the greater portion of the land wanted for Adams Point Park, and I know nothing about what arrangements have been made with him. "One thing is certain. If my demand is rejected, and the city compels me to go to the trouble and expense of a lawsuit, I shall hold out for the full value of my land, and shall try to get every cent which it is worth. It will be seen before that trial ends that I have asked an extremely reasonable figure for my holdings. "Mayor Mott declines to discuss the defiance issued by Mr. Adams. He admits that the city holds no option on the land, but holds to the belief that the price offered by the city is a fair, even liberal, one in view of all the circumstances.

REBUKES JURYMEN WHO SAVED NECK OF YOUTH

Judge Dunne Denies Motion for New Trial for Frank McAuliffe, the Highwayman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—In denying a motion for a new trial to Frank McAuliffe, a youthful highwayman convicted of murder in the second degree, Judge Frank Dunne, in the Superior Court, today uttered severe strictures on the jury that tried the case, saying that if the jury had done its duty, the verdict would have been murder with the death penalty affixed. Judge Dunne said: "If a new trial is granted, it will be for the people, in order that a jury might be selected that will do its duty. The fault with the verdict is that, instead of finding the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree, the verdict should have been murder in the first degree with the death penalty." McAuliffe, who is twenty years of age, participated in the attempted robbery which led to the murder of Fred Mullinix at the Ocean Beach. The sentence given him by Judge Dunne today was life imprisonment at Folsom.

MRS. DARDEN SCORES POINT

Demurrer Filed by Husband Is Overruled by Judge
Waste.

In the case of Levi T. Darden, formerly a wealthy furniture man of Eureka, whose second wife, Myra Darden, is suing for divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty, the demurrer of the defendant to his wife's complaint was overruled this morning by Judge Waste.

With the hearing of the demurrer, facts were brought out that cast some light on the Darden scandal in this sensational divorce case. Darden alleged in the demurrer that his wife did not state sufficient facts in her complaint to constitute a cause of action, for he claimed that she did not say what grounds she accused him of having made intimacy with, or what man's room she went to. He also denied having caused her great physical and mental suffering.

After hearing the demurrer argued by the attorneys, Judge Waste considered that Mrs. Darden No. 2 had warranted actions for the accusations she made in her complaint, which was filed a few weeks ago, and allowed Darden ten days in which to answer to the allegations. The wealthy Humboldt seems to be on the point of having another featureless divorce entanglement. About a year ago he married Miss Myra Phillips of the Eureka Business College.

Several years ago, at Eureka, Darden's former wife, May V. Darden, obtained a divorce on similar grounds to those in the complaint of the second wife. Up to the time of her moving to Berkeley, about a year ago, he had been providing her with more than $200 a month alimony. When she left the northern town, he paid her a lump sum and gave her the beautiful home on the corner of Manoa and Stewart streets in Berkeley, where his daughter, Miss Della Darden, attends the University of California and is a prominent member of the sophomore class and Phi Beta Pi sorority. It was said at one time, by friends of Mrs. May V. Darden, that she and her husband would remain when Mrs. Myra Darden should obtain a divorce.

WILL NOT PROSECUTE
MAN SHE ACCUSES

CULPEPPER, Va., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Viola Bywaters will not go to Washington to testify against Dr. Leon, whom she charges with having performed a criminal operation upon her at the instance of the young man she subsequently married and who half an hour after was shot to death by her two brothers. The Strother family are anxious to avoid the notoriety and wish to let the matter drop. Detectives from Washington have come here to get statements from young Mrs. Bywaters have been refused access to her on the ground that she is too ill to say anything. Her brothers are averse to her going to Washington to prosecute Dr. Leon, and they probably will have their way. James and Philip Strother, who shot and killed young Bywaters, will be taken before the grand jury, which meets the third Monday in January.

TRIBUNE CONTEST---VOTE FOR YOUR FRIEND

NEARLY ALL CONTESTANTS ARE MAKING GOOD GAINS

Persons in the Outside Districts Show That They Are in to Win in the Tribune's Contest.

Good gains have been made by very nearly all of the contestants during the last week and still they come.

The outside districts are becoming aroused as candidates from several points have entered and intend to make things go in hurry-up fashion from now until the close of the contest.

It will be well for all of the candidates to exert themselves in securing every available coupon and subscription they possibly can, for they will be needed before the end of the contest.

Old subscribers get the benefit of the votes the same as the new subscribers, which some of the contestants do not understand.

Every paid up subscription, whether old or new is entitled to the votes.

CONTESTANTS DOING WELL.

Every contestant has done well up to date with brighter prospects of doing much better in the future.

The contest is firmly on its feet and a successful reality in every sense of the word. Nearly every one in Alameda county is taking a decided interest in the contest, watching the outcome with eagerness.

No doubt the remaining days of the contest will be filled with the keenest rivalry and the tug of war enacted will be one of the fiercest in this State.

BOOSTING BOEHMER.

This is what the Livermore Herald has to say about one of its former "boys."

"William Boehmer, formerly of this place, but now of Alameda, leads in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE'S contest for the most popular letter carrier in the district including Alameda, and Berkeley. As the prize is a building lot valued at $750, 'Bully's' local friends should save their coupons and give him a 'boost' for old time's sake."

Ben Hamilton of Berkeley, is making a strong pull for the lot and has several friends working in his behalf.

Fred Wille, the popular Oakland letter carrier, has been holding first place for several days, but has been displaced by M. J. King.

POPULAR "DAN."

"Popular Dan" is what is handed Mr. Hallahan by all his friends and especially at the postoffice, where they call him a great deal of sport in "joshing" him.

H. J. Edwards, the popular union man, once more heads the list of union men and is fast securing votes and subscriptions.

E. P. Doty is third with Joe Reboli close up.

Miss Linda Johnson is working earnestly to win and has prospects of several thousand votes in the near future.

Miss May Gallagher, one of Berkeley's fair contestants, has hopes of gaining first place from Miss Watkins, and is interesting many friends in her campaign.

RUBY SCHLOSS FIRST.

Miss Ruby Schloss of Alameda is holding first place against some of the earnest workers in the persons of Miss Barber, Miss Anna McKenize and Miss Bessie James.

The policemen are fast developing into good hunters for votes, and are exchanging places frequently, showing a bit of keen rivalry among them.

C. C. Gargandene has climbed over A. B. Smith in the scramble for the motorcycle with John T. Fuby following closely.

STILL IN RACE.

W. H. Quigley and Alfred Poulter are not out of the race by any means, and will prove to the satisfaction of friends who are working for them that they are in earnest and mean honors.

George M. Smith still has hopes of first place in the contest with the standing of the other contestants practically unchanged.

MANNER OF VOTING.

A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of The Tribune until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is also another way of securing votes and that is on paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:

One month, $5.00.....100 extra votes
Three months, $15.00.....300 extra votes
Six months, $30.00.....600 extra votes
One year, $75.00.....1500 extra votes

The Fuel Shortage and Its Causes.

It is useless to rail at the coal dealers for raising the price of fuel in the face of an unprecedented demand and a heavy shortage in the supply. An advance in price is in strict accordance with the law of supply and demand, which is remorseless in its operation, and the only surprising feature of the situation is that the men controlling the coal supply have not pushed their advantage further. If the same conditions prevailed in the wheat market we should see bread and flour go soaring in price, for the men who buy and sell foodstuffs are simply in business for profit and stand ready to take advantage of even calamity to increase their gains.

That the fuel situation is deplorable in several respects cannot be denied. That it is entailing much suffering and hardship and hampering industry is unfortunately too true, but matters are not mended by abusing men for putting a price they can easily get on what they have to sell. The demand exceeds the supply, and the severe weather prevailing all over the country compels an unusual consumption. Owing to the car shortage the railroads are not bringing the quantity of coal from Utah and Wyoming usually shipped out here, and there are not enough vessels to supply the market from the mines of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. The stock of Australian coal has been exhausted in advance of replenishment.

Of course, combines to take advantage of public necessity are cruel and immoral, but when the demand far exceeds the supply dealers can make their own price without combining. A broad economic law fixes the price. Bad weather and freight congestion combine to prevent the transportation of coal from the points of production to the points of consumption, and in consequence it is difficult to obtain fuel at any price. With coal as with anything else, the higher the price and the more it is needed the harder it is to get.

Every winter for years the great centers of population in the East have experienced a season of high prices and fuel shortage, due in a large part to combines between the railroads and coal companies, but also in a measure to excessive demand. This season the excessive demand comes from all over the country at a time when the railroads are short of cars and are generally overtaxed by the volume of traffic. Wood and fuel oil are equally as hard to get as coal, and in consequence many manufacturing establishments have been compelled to temporarily shut down while others are running on short time.

The only consolation to be derived from the unpleasant predicament is that the exactions of the coal companies are not equal to their opportunities—as extortionate as prices appear to be. What should engage thoughtful attention is a way to guard against such extremities as the present fuel shortage and the exactions and sufferings that are its natural consequence. The coal measures of the American continent are being rapidly monopolized and made subsidiary to the transportation interests. An arrangement between the mining companies and the railroads can produce a coal shortage at any time at any given point, and whole communities be brought under subjection and tribute. How to prevent artificial scarcity dictated by predacious reasons is a problem of the gravest public concern. The present condition in this locality is due to natural cause, but the acuteness of the distress it occasions adds emphasis to the necessity for providing a remedy for monopoly evils that are becoming more and more aggressive and pervasive.

The Blundering Democratic Party.

General Grant said the Democratic party could be depended upon to blunder at the right time. The truth of this observation has been demonstrated time and time again. It is about to be demonstrated once more if the news from Washington is correct. John Sharp Williams of Mississippi is to be deposed as leader of the Democratic minority in the House, and Champ Clark of Missouri given the peacock feather instead. A change more decidedly for the worse can hardly be imagined. Williams is an abler, better educated and more politic man than Clark, and has no superior in the House as a parliamentary strategist. Clark is a breezy, companionable fellow, with a vein of rough Western humor and a gift of gab of a certain kind, but he possesses none of the qualities of a successful parliamentary leader. He is not a profound thinker, and is too impulsive and emotional to be a strategist. To set down Williams to set up Clark is but another evidence of the intellectual demoralization that has come over the Democracy. As long as the Democratic party continues to cast out and repudiate its thoughtful, conservative and cultured members just so long will it continue to decline as a political force and be regarded as the creature of ignorant mob impulse. Today statesmen find neither welcome nor future in the ancient party of Jefferson and Jackson, which is controlled by petty ideas and officered by noisy parochial agitators. The South, which dominates the organization, is returning leaders of brains and dignity and filling their places with men like Ben Tillman, Jeff Davis of Arkansas, Bob Taylor of Tennessee, and Vandaman—coarse, violent demagogues of a narrow provincial type who inspire distrust and aversion. The low estate to which the Democracy of the North has fallen is being reflected at the South, where the deterioration in the standard of public life is pitiable. It is all the more regrettable because the South has no robust Republican leadership to represent it in the councils of the nation. But a party that elevates men of the calibre and attainments of Champ Clark and degrades to the ranks scholarly thinkers like John Sharp Williams cannot hope to claim the confidence of the nation.

Senator Hopkins of Illinois has endorsed Reed Smoot. Now, who will endorse Hopkins?

That stern moralist, Hon. Grove Lawrence Johnson, has introduced a bill to prohibit newsboys from selling newspapers containing accounts of sporting events. This is to supplement his bill to make playing bridge whist and "Five Hundred" a penal offense. If he will now offer a bill to suppress political shysterism and legal shoplifting the measure of his service to public morality may be regarded as full.

Iowa has the honor of holding the first lynching bee in 1907. The victim was James Cullen, a wealthy white contractor, who murdered his wife and stepson under circumstances of peculiar atrocity. He was lynched, it is said, because he defied the law and public sentiment and boasted that he would spend $50,000 to get acquitted. While Cullen deserved his fate, the lynching was a disgrace to the State. Surely the expenditure of $50,000 would not paralyze the arm of justice in Iowa. If the courts of that State cannot be relied on to vindicate the law the situation is indeed grave, but mob murder is not likely to improve it.

David Starr Jordan's Blackguardism.

In an address before the Unitarian Club of San Francisco, David Starr Jordan, who has constituted himself a champion of the Japanese, asked this question:

"Shall the foreign policies of the United States be directed by a gentleman, or shall they be directed from within the shadow of San Quentin?"

Further on he quoted Roosevelt's expression, "It pays a nation to be a gentleman."

Apparently it has not occurred to Dr. Jordan that it pays an individual to be a gentleman. He may consider it gentlemanly to gratuitously insult the great body of his countrymen in this State, but if so his conception of a gentleman is on a par with his ideas of truth-telling.

Dr. Jordan's remarks are based on two false and libelous assumptions. The first is that those who believe in separate schools for Japanese sympathize with crime and criminals even if they are not actually malefactors. No other construction can be placed on his reference to San Quentin in connection with the Japanese public school controversy. His second false assumption is that no man is a gentleman who objects to his children sitting in the public schools beside Japanese.

The language Dr. Jordan employs is that of a blackguard. His sentiments are those of an intellectual degenerate. The president of Stanford has the distinction of bringing the discussion to the level of the gutter by placing every person who disagrees with him outside the pale of gentility and inside the moral circumference of State prison. Yet Dr. Jordan probably deludes himself with the idea that he is a person of good manners and that in his discussion of the Japanese question he is philosophical. His language is in keeping with the ideas of a man who will cast an infamous slur on the great mass of Californians in his zeal to force them to accept the Japanese as social equals.

A GOOD NEW YEAR TO ALL.

(Written for THE TRIBUNE.)

The glasses jingled merry round,
A happy year to all the merry sound.
Here's luck to one, good luck to all,
To cottager and lord of hall.
A good new year to all, to all.

This was the spirit of the night,
The habit of the time.
The old year vanishing from sight
Brought naught but good cheer to the mind.
The new year ushered in the thought
(The hope, the fear, the struggle fraught
With much heart-burning in the past)
Had come to clear, to calm the blast
Of poverty's dire sting.

Such was the hope in years gone by.
Such is the hope today
That each new year will lift us high
In fortune's favored way.
Here's luck to one, good luck to all.
To cottager, to lord of hall.
A good new year to all, to all.

H. B. MCGOWAN.

The Jew's Remarkable Triumph in New-York.

"While Mr. Zangwill and his fellow enthusiasts preach the return to Palestine, the real Zion, greater in numbers and wealth and power than the old, steadily gathers on Manhattan Island," writes Mr. Hendrick in the January McClure's. His article on "The Great Jewish Invasion" reveals the astonishing progress the race has made in a country where social and political restrictions do not cramp its indomitable energy and ambition. There are now 800,000 Jews in New York city—the greatest Jewish community ever assembled in one place. Not only that—they have become a dominant factor of the society in which they live. Mr. Hendrick describes the picturesque ascent of the newly landed Russian immigrant, with his poverty, his ignorance, his suspicious hatred of government authority, and his relentless ambition, to the station of a land-owner, a manufacturer, or a merchant of standing and wealth. His analysis of the causes and conditions which are lending themselves to the advancement of the restless Hebrew in this country, and of the material symbols which mark the path of his triumphant march, is one of the most interesting pieces of sociological observation lately published.

PERFECT WOMANHOOD. The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The greatest woman's remedy for women's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Pains and Discomforts, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

FLOWERS TOLD OF THEIR LOVE

Beautiful Tributes Paid at Funeral of the Late A. C. Henry.

The funeral of A. C. Henry, former Mayor, City Treasurer and City Clerk of Oakland, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 1211 Harrison street. Rev. E. E. Baker of the First Presbyterian church conducted the services, which were beautiful and touching and in which the minister laid particular stress on the many sterling qualities and kindness of heart of the deceased. A great many floral pieces, beautifully designed, were sent by friends in token of the esteem in which Mr. Henry was held. The pallbearers were ex-Governor Stephen T. Gage, John W.

Phillips, Irwin Ayres, W. H. Knight, James T. Gardner and James L. Barker. Interment was at Mountain View Cemetery. Mr. Henry passed away Tuesday, about an hour after a sudden attack of heart failure. He was stricken in a doorway down town, and died shortly after reaching his home. He was 78 years old, and leaves a widow, Mrs. Anna S. Henry; two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Stephenson and Mrs. Edith McLaughlin, and three sons, George S. Charles A. and Walter H. Henry.

TEMPERANCE TALK BY CAPTAIN DUTTON

Captain W. C. Dutton of Texas will speak in Upper Hamilton Hall Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars. The captain has been campaigning for Good Templary in California for several years, with marked success. Many successful lodges have been organized and an excellent class of people interested in temperance work. He is a witty speaker, well posted on the temperance and prohibition reform, and entertains and instructs his audiences. His lectures are all free, not even collections being taken.

OFFICERS GET WRONG MEN

Three Suspects Prove That They Are Not Highwaymen Wanted.

Three suspects were arrested and released yesterday by Sheriff Barnett and Constable Tom Carroll. The trio had been carefully watched, and it was supposed that they were the men who held up Charley Harrison's roadhouse Monday night. The men furnished a good alibi to prove that they had been other places at the time of the robbery, so were released after being detained for a few hours. The authorities have not yet given up the pursuit of clues on the case, and hope soon to land the highwaymen.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for women's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Pains and Discomforts, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. MISTAKES WIFE FOR A BURGLAR AND FIRES

Paducah Druggist Seriously Wounds His Better Half by a Sad Blunder in the Night Time.

PADUCAH, Ky., Jan. 18.—Mistaking her for a burglar, George C. Kolb shot and probably fatally wounded his wife at their home, 103 South Fifth street. Mrs. George Lyle, Mrs. Kolb's mother, is prostrated and the husband is crazed with grief. The accident spread sorrow generally. Both Mr. Kolb and his wife are well known and popular in Paducah.

SEES FORM COMING.
Mr. and Mrs. Kolb slept upstairs and he always retired with a revolver under his pillow. Awakening early he saw a form coming toward him from the window. Thinking it a burglar, he pulled the pistol from under his pillow, raised himself suddenly and fired once. His aim was accurate and his victim fell with a moan.
The husband almost instantly realized his mistake and, shouting excitedly, summoned other members of the family. Physicians were called and it was found that the ball had penetrated the chest under the collar bone and grazed the lungs. The patient was not wholly conscious and in no condition to give any account of why she was up.

STATEMENT BY HUSBAND.
Mr. Kolb, when seen, made a brief statement as follows:
"I was awakened suddenly and saw a form coming toward me, directly in line with the window. I thought it a burglar and without a second thought rose and shot. The ball hit my wife. She has not been in condition to explain what she was doing."
Mrs. Kolb is 26 years old, the daughter of Mrs. Georgia Lyle, widow of Thomas Lyle, one of the most prominent residents of Paducah, and a sister of Edgar Lyle of Paducah, and of Tom Lyle of Little Rock, Ark. Mr. Kolb is a brother of Councilman Louis Kolb and is a member of the firm of Kolb Bros., wholesale druggists.

FLIRTATION OF DOE DEER SAVED LIFE OF WOODSMAN

He Was Treed by Buck, Which Left Him Only to Battle With Rival for His Mate.

NORTHAM, Nt. Jan. 18.—Bill Austen, a chopper, was treed the other day by an angry buck, and it might have gone hard with him if another buck hadn't unwittingly helped him out of his difficulty.

On the day of the adventure Austen wore for the first time a sweater he bought at a marked-down sale in Rutland. It was a fiery red garment, and when a buck, accompanied by a doe, got a look at Bill sitting on a log eating his lunch, he felt that he and his lady have had been insulted.

Austen's ax lay some feet off, and when the buck snorted and charged he didn't have time to get it. He did just what any other sane man would have done—shinned the nearest spruce. This was a substantial tree, with wide-spreading branches, and for an hour or two Bill was reasonably comfortable. He figured that the gallant buck would depart after a time, but in this he miscalculated, for the deer kept close to the trunk, and every time Bill moved he pawed the ground and bellowed, now and then turning his eye on his fair companion to receive her gracious approbation.
The chopper knew well enough that it was the red sweater which aroused the ire of the buck, but with the thermometer at zero he couldn't take it off without freezing. So he sat on a limb, kicked his legs, slapped his arms and swore. Finally, even with the sweater, he began to be chilled and things looked a bit serious.

He was vainly trying to hatch up some scheme to get rid of the deer when the matter was taken out of his hands. Another buck, attracted by the stamping and snorting, hove in sight, and no sooner cast eye upon the comely doe than he began a desperate flirtation. It is a sad commentary on womankind in general that the doe reciprocated. She flapped her ears, cast down her lustrous eyes and cowered. In Deerland these are signs of flirtation, not to be mistaken, and the pawing buck no sooner saw these signs of reciprocity than he charged the invader.

In another instant a fine battle was waging, and Austen, taking advantage of the situation, descended from the tree and legged it down the mountain. At the nearest house he borrowed a gun and returned. On his arrival at the battleground nothing was to be seen of the deer, but the snow was covered with blood, hair and bits of horn, showing that the fight had been desperate.

OBJECTS TO BLOOMERS WORN BY DEACON'S WIFE

Pastor Felt His Dignity Hurt When She Received Him in Such Costume, and Lost Pulpit.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 18.—The Rev. A. W. Sonne, of Greencastle, who objected because the wife of one of the deacons wore bloomers when he called at her home, has been relieved of his connection with his congregation by the Indianapolis Presbytery.

The pastor's trouble in the First Presbyterian church were many, according to the testimony given. But the bloomer proposition led them all. The Rev. Mr. Sonne, with all ministerial dignity, according to the story, called at the home of J. O. Cammack, a deacon. He was received by Mrs. Cammack in a hospitable manner, also in bloomers. Mrs. Cammack wore the bloomers when working among her flowers, and when she heard the doorbell ring she didn't have time to change her attire.

It developed that there were many troubles in the congregation. There were financial difficulties and charges had been made that the pastor was not assiduous in his church duties.

MILK-BOTTLE-FED PIG GAINS A POUND A DAY

Porker, Treated Like a Baby by Enterprising Farmer, Repays Lavish Attention.

EAST STROUDSBERG, Jan. 18.—An experiment that will greatly interest the farmers of Pennsylvania has just been completed by Henry I. Parsons, of Snyder'sville, this county.

Parsons conceived the idea that a pig would grow faster and better if it were taken at birth and fed on a milk bottle commonly used by infants. For six weeks, as regular as meal time came, the pig was given its bottle. At the end of that time a more substantial cornmeal gruel, well cooked, was prepared.

The juvenile porker weighs just 200 pounds, the result of 195 days of stylish living.

SOCIETY WOMEN READY TO FIGHT DEADLY TYPHOID

Some to Become Nurses, While Others Raise Funds for Epidemic Victims.

SCRANTON, Jan. 18.—Two dozen society women of this city met today and decided to aid the authorities in stamping out the typhoid epidemic. Some of them will act as nurses, while others will raise funds and necessities for poor patients. Mrs. James P. Dickson is at the head of the movement.

There was a slight falling off in the number of cases today, sixteen being reported. The total number is 988. There are six additional deaths, making sixty-two. Director of Public Safety Wormser plans to flush the water mains, and although the meter system is used the water company intimated that there would be no difficulty. Hydrants will be left open till pure water flows.

Superintendent Ferber had twelve members of the Fire Department at work today placarding the city with 5000 posters warning the public to boil the water.

APRON MADE BY MARY, QUEEN OF SCOTS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 18.—In the possession of Mrs. E. H. Evans, of this city, is a black satin, embroidered apron which there is every reason to believe was made by Mary Queen of Scots, who, in spite of her royalty, was an expert needlewoman with a fondness for fancy sewing.

The embroidery of this apron, which is one of the only two said to be in existence, was made in the famous "lost stitch," which is unknown to modern embroiderers.

Under microscopic examination it is not at all like Turkish or Chinese chain stitch, which resembles it closely, but is done in a series of little, tight French knots, which are fastened so firmly that it is impossible to unravel the infinitesimal disks of silk.

There are myriads of them in flower designs, in colors exquisitely blended, incised by a running silken cord, couched on. A marvelous design, strangely artistic, yet conventional, was done by a woman with unlimited time at her disposal.

forming a border and corner pieces and four strips for the top of pleats for fulness. The wonderful evenness of the stitches indicates that the work

ABOUT WOMEN.

Mrs. Lebarry, the talented woman who has been divorced by the noted actor, is to be married to Claude Castimir Ferrier, son of the former president of France, but against the opposition of his family.

In six Swiss colleges no less than 2192 women are now studying. The majority of the enrolled female students are Russians. The women are most largely represented at Bern, where 1000 are enrolled, almost all in the medical course. Lausanne has 380, Geneva 348, Zurich 216 and Basle fourteen.

A London writer says that at a conference of head teachers at Leamington, Miss Cleghorn, head of a large elementary school at Sheffield, denounced coeducation. She said that big mixed schools were bad for children—educationally, morally and physically.

Mrs. N. S. Shaler will write a life of the late Dean Shaler of Harvard University, and she asks all who have any recollection of her late husband illustrating his traits to write to her about it at her Washington home. It is said she will have no trouble in getting plenty of material, so well known and beloved was her husband.

Delouris Elizabeth Harrison, although only 15 years old, has filled for the last two years the responsible position of engineer at her father's sawmill near Necedah, Johnson county, Indiana. During the turning season, Miss Harrison is often seen in the cab of her father's traction engine, pulling the big separator and water tank along the road, going from one farm to another to thresh wheat.

The Countess of Suffolk, sister of the late Lady Curzon, was driving the other day in Washington, wearing a white cloth suit, made with a pony jacket and a deep flounce on the demitripped skirt. A narrow band of crepe edged the left cuff and a narrow band of crepe edged the flowing chiffon veil. This was the "strict mourning" which she is said to be wearing for her sister, while being considered quite as much mourning as black.

Bertha Krupp, the heiress of the great German armaments, who was recently married, has received a new title—"Queen Krupp." Her income goes on increasing, as does her state and power. The reserve of the Essen works, according to a balance sheet just published, amounts now to nearly $5,000,000 a year. Bertha Krupp is absolute owner of her kingdom. In Essen alone she has 40,000 families, makes more than 200,000 persons dependent upon her now. If other concerns be added there is a total of 300,000 dependents.

When his nephew, Prince Arthur, told the king of England that he was in love with and wanted to marry pretty Marjorie Harriet Manners, there were two reasons why King Edward strongly objected to the match. In the first place, the king has always cordially disliked the girl's mother, now the Duchess of Rutland, but better known as the Marchioness of Granby. In the next place, the Duke of Connaught, the young man's father, is near the drafts on the king's purse for his relatives' needs are large and the monarch hoped that his nephew would have arranged a money-making match. However, royal consent was obtained.

Attractive opera or slipper bags may often be evolved from odd pieces of silk. In the first case these may be embroidered, hand-painted or beaded and put on bright clasps or in both cases they may be put on drawing strings of velvet or satin ribbon.

Trouble is sometimes experienced in fitting a skirt to a stout figure, but a little insight into the correct method of charging the pattern will be a saving of time and patience. After cutting and carefully basting the seams try the skirt on. It must be pinned snugly around the hips, the front gore hanging perfectly straight. The fullness of the back should now be laid into pleats and pinned into place. In cutting the skirt for a stout person it is well to cut the front and first side gore a little longer than the pattern. It is very essential that the front gore be kept in the position in which it is now pinned. To do this the side gores will have to be lifted.

These pictures are from the most recent photographs of the Shah and Crown Prince of Persia. The picture at the top is that of Ali Murza, the Persian Crown Prince, whose ascent to the jeweled throne awaits the death of the Shah, which may occur at any moment. The full-length picture shows Muzaffer-ed-Din, the dying Shah. He is known as the richest monarch in the world, and is well known throughout Europe because he has made several tours of the European courts.

TOO SMART 'LILIPUTIAN' WAS MADE TO SMART

Played Mother Was Gulliver, Tied Her, and the Week's Washing Was Charred to Rags.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Six-year-old Johnnie Caine, of this town, received for one of his Christmas presents a book containing an account of Gulliver's Travels and thought it would be great sport to play he was a Liliputian. To this end he swapped a red tin horn for a ball of kite twine and waited for his mother to take a nap like Gulliver.

The other afternoon Mrs. Caine put the clothes in a wash boiler, and while they were boiling over a brisk fire, lay down on the dining-room lounge to rest. Soon she fell asleep, and Johnnie got busy. His mother's arms were over her head, and as she is a sound sleeper, it didn't take the lad long to tie her down so tightly that she couldn't move a peg.

Having finished the job, Johnnie's enthusiasm began to subside and visions of a sound flogging loomed up on the horizon. The vision soon developed into a specter, and Johnnie retreated into a corner, and hid himself. He had swapped playthings. The longer he stayed the less anxious he was to return.

return, for the neighbor's boy seemed to take particular delight in forecasting what would have happened to him had he been so daring as to play Liliputian. His description was so glowing that Johnnie almost smarted by suggestion.

About an hour and a half after she was tied down Mrs. Caine was awakened by the smell of burning cotton. She tried to arise, but couldn't. Her hands, feet and body were tightly ensnared, and the more she writhed the more firmly she was held. Her voice was left to her, however, and Johnnie and all the neighbors soon heard wild yells for help issuing from the Caine house. The neighbors responded in droves, but Johnnie hid in a hen-house.

When the neighbors arrived they found that the water had evaporated from the boiler and that the week's wash was a pile of cinders and charred rags. They drew the smoking boiler out of doors and then liberated the irate Mrs. Caine, who went on a still hunt for Liliputian Johnnie. What happened to him is too painful to relate.

COURTSHIP BY MAIL FAILED TO GAIN BUFFALO MAN WIFE

He Thought That Jersey Girl's Lark Was Serious, but She Had Him Arrested.

MONCLAIR, N. J., Jan. 18.—Miss Sophie Ellis of Bloomfield avenue, Caldwell, N. J., in a spirit of fun, answered a matrimonial advertisement published by Henry Dominyni of Buffalo, who wanted a wife. Miss Ellis, in starting the correspondence with Dominyni, gave him the name of her friend, Miss Rose Galsah and also sent her photograph.

The two girls awaited developments, and to their surprise Dominyni himself, traveling all the way from Buffalo, arrived in Caldwell on Saturday morning. When he reached the Ellis homestead Miss Ellis admitted him. He promptly recognized her, and, not standing upon formalities, opened negotiations for the marriage amid affectionate demonstrations.

Miss Ellis, too frightened at first to speak, sought to explain to Dominyni that it was all a mistake and was intended only as a lark. The disappointed lover protested that he had come a long distance and that his intentions were strictly honorable. He continued to press his suit with so much ardor that Miss Ellis finally suggested that they go out for a walk. Dominyni believed that Miss Ellis was about to marry him and visit a clergyman to tie the knot, but instead she took him before Recorder Heller and entered a complaint against him for annoying her. The Recorder ordered Dominyni to leave town at once, which he did, declaring that Jersey girls were deceivers.

The most convenient apron for sewing was made of dotted muslin, one length turned up at the bottom to form a deep pocket. A wide hem at the top allowed a rather broad ribbon for the waist and another on the top of the pocket and facing on the back of the apron, on a line with this pocket hem and of the same width, permitted drawing strings like the belt ribbon. The top of the apron can be turned over and tucked into the pocket and there is a bag all ready to hang up.

CALLS IT JOKE ON HIMSELF OF HAMILTON

President Wheeler Tells Students of Waif at Ferry Building.

Methodist Bishop Was in Kingston on Day of the Great Earthquake.

BERKELEY, Jan. 12.—"According to the newspapers, I had a hard time of it on my trip back from Monterey, when I missed connections at the ferry building. They were waiting for me, however, and the fact is that the two hours that I passed on the bench in the waiting room were comfortable. The waitman brought me an overcoat, the peanut man a blanket, and altogether I was well taken care of. I thanked the waitman for his overcoat, but he said he had given it away. 'Oh, that's all right, P.O., I have a girl coming over to my institution one of these days and she comes you can look out for her.'"

JOE JEFFERSON.

The "Naiad Queen" held the boards at the National Theater fifty years ago, with Joe Jefferson as leading comedian. In the Star of November 22, 1856, is this report of the performance:

"There was a bad show for theatricals last night, with mud, rain and fog, yet the people would go to see the 'Naiad Queen'; indeed, when once within the canvas walls of the National and in view of the fairyland presented upon the stages of the magic scene of light and beauty, peopled with inhabitants of more than mortal grace and draped in costumes that fairly dazzled the eye, so gorgeous and brilliant were they—it was hard to realize that one was separated by a single wall only from the incident of mud, pitch darkness and driving snow. We congratulate Manager Ford and all concerned on having succeeded in presenting an illusion so brilliant and perfect, and also congratulate ourselves and the public that to the in the nineteenth century and are able to see nineteenth century and are enabled to see it. By all odds it is the most complete spectacle ever presented in this city, combining all that was formerly conceivable possible in this line with the many improvements of modern times. It seems now as if the force of art could no longer go."

And yet doubtless the "Naiad Queen" done in the 1856 style—would today be viewed by the public as a slow spectacle not to be compared with those that now cater to the popular taste—Washington Star.

"TIDINGS OF THE TIMES."

The doctor who brings suit to collect bills and has patients tried, with a man's mind may fairly be said to have without his being phlegmated. A new broom sweeps well and a new office boy minds the bell for a while. The French chef is a lighted light in literature, but the ignorant cook puts in more than his work out for him—the writer who subscribes to the press clipping bureau. The man who would elevate the stage is a benefactor in the line of the gallery gods. It is so far down from their perch that they can't see much.

PUZZLE POEM.
They asked him where he lived before
And why he moved away;
And had he success of a job?
And were his habits gay?

They asked him who his parents were
And if his folks were mad;
They counted on his children's end
And how much cash he had.

The riddle now is up to you,
Where was the fellow at,
An idle fellow, tramp, or
Hunter, not a fat?

Was his a sad and homeless fate,
Or might it worse have been?
We simply give this little clue—
They let his children in—Puck.

EDITOR'S CHRISTMAS.

An old man sat in a Thruway train in the St. Louis Union station Monday evening, waiting for the Christmas crowds. An old-fashioned beaver hat was pulled down low on his forehead. At one side was the general superintendent of the railroad. At the other a newspaper man and his wife. The four were discussing the happiness which Christmas brings into so many homes.

The old man became silent. As the train drew out in the country he watched the land gliding by upon long, narrow, flat, looking up once upon the bleak hills and barren fields. He seemed to take no notice of the darkness slowly creeping in. A tear gathered and welled on an eyelid, and he began almost unconsciously—

"Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight,
Make me a child again just for to-night."

The car swayed and rocked as the twilight deepened. And still the old man sat.

"Roll!" called the porter.

The beaver hat was removed, the old man shook hands with those about him, and, working with his rheumatism, left the train.

"That was J. West Goodwin, veteran newspaper man," said a friend of the men. "He's going to spend Christmas day with friends. His family's scattered. His wife is dead these twenty years—his two sons grown up and gone. And I guess he feels pretty lonely."—Kansas Citizen.

"TIPPED" POLICEMAN AND GOES TO JAIL

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Herman offered 25 cents to a policeman to buy cigars. Herman, a 40-year-old, a wholesale dealer of No. 275 Grand street, Manhattan, was arrested yesterday on the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, on a charge of attempted bribery and held in $1000 bail for a hearing.

The policeman was James O'Brien of the Williamsburg Bridge squad. He had trooped with Tolke over a light on a wagon and to speak over the difference Tolke offered a quarter.

Which to buy cigars O'Brien scorned the proposition in vigorous language. Tolke went to the station to prefer charges against O'Brien, and the latter promptly had him taken into custody on a charge of attempted bribery. Tolke said in court he meant no harm.

Greatest concern is felt by the family in San Francisco of Bishop John W. Hamilton, that the distinguished divine has perished in the Kingston, Jamaica, earthquake. Bishop Hamilton is supposed to have been in Kingston and no word has been received from him. His family and friends have not every effort to communicate with him but without success.

Bishop Hamilton left New York January 7 for San Francisco in poor health, intending to make a prolonged stay on the island. He recently was appointed in charge of the committee to obtain funds for the rebuilding of church buildings destroyed in California by the earthquake and was one of the best known Methodist divines in the United States.

Unfortunately, George Cohan's denial that he has any domestic unpleasantness, has not borne out by his wife.

Railroads protest that they have "ordered" new cars, but cannot get them delivered. How awful it would be—how Socialist—if they decided to build the cars themselves.

Colorful election of Guggenheim to the United States senate will be in line with the effort to make the Kansas legislature turn the nomination over to one of the Isidorelms.

London's lord mayor gave the members of the "tax" society club, at their annual dinner not long ago, a sentence which, he informed them, he proposes to inscribe in letters of gold over the entrance to the Guildhall and in the title hall of the Mansion house.

It is said "Nobody likes long speeches except those who make them."

"No more trading stamps," is the slogan of a campaign which English groceryman are carrying on. One of them has shown out in England.

There is not a small grocer in England who earns 15 per cent on his capital. Ten per cent is average profit, and the cost of trading stamps leaves him only about six and one-quarter per cent.

The United States circuit court in New York City the other morning looked as though the sons of Anak had invaded the country. Over a dozen men were there applying for naturalization papers and more than half of them stood over six feet tall. The particular giant of the lot was Edmund Fritschner, an artist, born in Austria, who measures six feet eight inches.

The clerk of the court suggested after glancing at the remarkable assemblage that perhaps they had come here to "grow up with the country."

Dr. Ingram, bishop of London, is a learned ecclesiastic, but he declared that at times young children, when he is extravagantly fond, once he has had his questions, upon him he is addressing a gathering of poor children and at the close of his remarks invited any boy or girl to ask him questions. The bishop answered several, but was finally flustered by a little girl who asked "Please, sir, why did the angels walk up and down Jacob's ladder when they had wings?"

Dr. Ingram, however, by his ready quip: "What little boy or girl would like to answer that question?"

A new expression has been found for inviting a friend to quench his thirst. Prof. Mitchell is a great student of the white coat of the blood.

Heaves that they eat up the microbes which would otherwise eat up the man. But at the Pasteur Institute it is discovered that a rabbit, after taking alcoholic drink, cannot be rendered immune from leucocytes. His white cells, or leucocytes had lost their appetite, and the enemy won. "Thus now," writes a doctor, "when I offer to a medical friend the various alcoholic liquors which I keep for my friends' benefit, I simply ask, 'Would you care to paralyze your leucocytes?'"

BLONDE GOING.

It has been settled by scientific research that in 600 years blondes will no longer entrance the world. The blonde of the future is already doomed, but the fair, golden, blue-eyed peaches and cream variety that is said to be dividing so rapidly that six centuries will be out in two by this round date regarding the dying or a dying race. She of the golden hair may soon be regarded as a "sport," a freak of nature, and be treasured accordingly. But with the passing of the red-headed girl will human kind have an easier time of it? Will there be less ructions, less tantrums keeping the world busy? Scientists also say that blondes do not stay so long as they formerly did. Their lovely blondness darkens more rapidly with the accumulating years, but they are not the accumulating soot and smoke of the present time, rather, that settles on fair hair and fades and darkens its spun glory?—Boston Herald.

ONE ON LEW.

In his dressing room at the New York theater Saturday night, Lew Dockstader more to the truth of this tale of the road.

"The future of two freight trains to pass on a single track last month resulted in a smash-up which made my mistress lose a night and remain tied up for hours at a little water tank town in Indiana."

"To breathe the tedium of delay they attended a matinee of a two-day popular picture company at the Academy of Music across from the depot."

A hand-painted poster in front of the place announced "The Grave Burial of the White Horse of the Road." The minstrels, who seldom get to see a show, were all anxious to know what it could be like. To our amazement we found ourselves witnessing a much mutilated version of "Hamlet," butchered by a cast cut to five.

The manager, an unlettered but courteous and cordial person, came in to exchange professional greeting after the first act, and I ventured to inquire why.

"Well, you see it's this way, he whispered, confidentially, 'we can't afford to pay a valet, and since all this row about play parties don't mean to take no chances on infringement of copyright.'—New York Mail.

SERMONS IN WRECK.

"John, here's another horrible railroad wreck in the papers."

"Yes, and everybody in the smoker on the wrecked train was killed."

"The usually awl."

"O John, won't you throw that old pipe away now? What greater lesson could you have on the evils of tobacco?"

SAVES GIRL WHO ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A well-dressed good-looking young woman about twenty years old yesterday afternoon jumped off the Liberty Island steamer pier at the Battery. Her screams attracted John Cuneen, of No. 116 Cedar street, Brooklyn, a clerk of the Houston Steamship Line, and he jumped into the water without stopping to remove coat or hat, and swam to her.

Cuneen held the young woman firmly and although the waves were high he brought her back to the pier, where a ladder was lowered and they were pulled up on the pier.

A policeman called an ambulance and Dr. Leslie of the Hudson Street Hospital, took both the unconscious young woman and Cuneen to the hospital.

The crowd took up a collection for the young hero.

GIRL WAS A WIFE AND DIDN'T KNOW IT

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Benjamin Nico married Miss Marie Baites three weeks ago without her knowledge. When an alderman learned the fact, she thought they were getting the marriage license. She became so angry on learning the truth that she sued for divorce.

Nico invoked strategy to win back her favor. He had a photographer make a composite picture of a photograph of himself and one of her. In the original one of his bride another girl stood with a hand resting affectionately on Miss Baites' shoulder.

In the composite Nico had this hand appear to be his. They had the appearance of great contentment together.

Nico proudly showed his wife the new photograph and she had him arrested. The court ordered him to destroy the picture.

CHANGES.In Favor of Permitting Mutual
Fire Companies to be Organized.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—The Berkeley Chamber of Commerce and the Berkeley Manufacturers' Association are hereafter to have the same secretary and will occupy the same quarters.

S. N. Wyckoff, who for some time has served as secretary for the Chamber, at the regular meeting of that body last night was given permission to assume the additional secretaryship. The rooms of the Chamber in the First National Bank building will be the headquarters for the two organizations.

In the course of the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, many of the members expressed themselves as being in favor of laws which would permit mutual fire insurance companies to be organized in this State. Expressions on the question came up when a communication from the Portland Chamber of Commerce, advising legislation at the present session of the Legislature, looking toward the improvement of the harbor property owned by the State, was brought out through the reading of resolutions passed by a special committee of the Promotion Committee at Sacramento. Some of the members believed that there might be a "bug" in the resolutions and that there might be a political scheme on foot to secure an additional appropriation for the San Francisco water front where the principal harbor property owned by the State lies.

Considerable interest was aroused by a communication from the Board of Trade of Kern county, which is anxious to have bills passed at the present session of the Legislature looking to the regulation of railroad transportation. It is the opinion of the members of the Kern county Board of Trade that laws should be passed which will compel railroads to furnish cars to manufacturers as they are ordered. They should base the laws on the famous act of the Legislature.

Dr. Lyman Allen, chairman of the transportation committee of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, was quite interested in the proposal of the Kern people and at its suggestion the matter will be taken up and thoroughly considered at one of the future meetings of the Chamber.

HIS DEATH
AN ACCIDENTCoroner's Jury Holds Inquest
On Victim of Powder Explosion.

RICHMOND, Cal., Jan. 18.—Coroner C. L. Abbott conducted an inquest last evening into the cause of the death of Edward K. Smith, who was killed last Thursday by an explosion at the Vigor Powder Works. There are no new developments brought out which would shed any light as to the cause of the accident, and the verdict was that the death came to his death from accidental causes.

Ernest Creason was taken to San Francisco yesterday and placed in St. Francis hospital where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

A new real estate firm is being organized in Richmond, and which augurs well for the success of the venture. B. Schapiro and J. H. Gibb, both veterans in the business, and J. A. Bailey, former superintendent of schools of Contra Costa county, and Constable J. E. Bouquet of San Pablo have formed the partnership. The latter will operate as a real estate agent, while the new firm will maintain offices on Washington avenue, Macdonald avenue, in this city, and a branch in Oakland.

Mrs. R. L. Adams has returned home from Occidental, Sonoma county, where she has been in attendance the past two weeks at the bedside of her mother, who has been dangerously ill.

The Reynolds harvest plant, which is located east of the Southern Pacific tracks, has been sold to an Oakland firm, and it is understood the latter will utilize the same for a storage warehouse.

Mark Johnson and Mrs. Lulu Johnson, his wife, were arrested yesterday charged with keeping an opium den on Railroad avenue. A layout was captured by the officers when the raid was made. They will be tried this morning at 10 o'clock.

High School Fraternities and Sororities
Propose to Make a Stand for Their Own Interests.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—Should the board of education persist in proceeding against the "frats" it will find itself lined up together both fraternities and sororities, for the members of both the girls' and the boys' societies now believe that the only thing for them to do is to pool their interests from the beginning.

In the event of a long legal fight the Eastern chapters of the Greek-letter societies represented at Berkeley High will be called upon to lend financial assistance.

Indignation runs high these days in high school fraternities and sororities circles. Following are some openly expressed opinions:

Robert Patterson: "I don't see why a fraternity man isn't as good as any other high school student. The fraternities here have no connection with the high school other than that the members must be enrolled students of the school. In some Eastern high schools the fraternities hold their meetings in the school rooms. The case is very different there. You must have that all the fraternities will stand together. We have had to fight before. The fraternities at Berkeley High, to say nothing of the sororities, have as many as one hundred chapters affiliated with them in other parts of the country."

Robert Kendall, Pi Delta Kappa: "It is not right that the fraternities should be legislated against. There is no reason why we should not be allowed to exist in Berkeley High School. We have money and prestige back of us which we will use to prevent the school board from taking any measures toward our abolishment."

Roy Turner, Phi Sigma Chi: "We feel as the others do, that the fraternities are not a detriment to any school; that, on the other hand, they do more good than harm. Phi Sigma Chi will oppose any attempt to lessen its prestige."

Miss Margaret Witter of Alpha Sigma: "It is untrue that a sorority is a detriment to a high school. The girls always take the most active interest in school work. We are doing nothing that should necessitate the abolishing of the societies."

The very ideal I never heard of such a thing. What would a high school be if it did not have a sorority or a fraternity? Dead! I should say so. Of course, Delta Sigma Theta intends to oppose such action as is proposed by the board. We can raise enough money to hire attorneys and we believe that no court would uphold the board's action."

Beth Clapp, Lambda Theta Phi: "Of course we will take legal action should the board attempt to abolish the sororities."

Another reason for the serious shortage of coal is the fact that during the burning of San Francisco hundreds of thousands of tons of coal were destroyed in the coal yards. Although Seattle is in a coal center, it is also suffering from serious shortages, and many of the schools have been closed.

"The coal famine in Berkeley is a very serious one," said President Ross, of the Chamber of Commerce. "Berkeley needs coal and needs it badly. The dealers have been doing their utmost to obtain fuel, but it comes in such meager lots that it is quickly taken up as soon as it arrives."

J. W. Koch believed that Berkeley should have its own system of coal bunkers. "But," added Mr. Koch, "the coal bunkers would be of no use unless men of influence and money could keep them filled. Of all the coal that goes to San Francisco, this side of the bay gets but two-tenths. We have 35,000 people on this side of the bay, and I doubt if San Francisco has that many."

Mr. Rochester accounted for the fact that San Francisco is given more coal than this side of the bay by stating that most of it is used by the ocean-going steamers.

Although the coal situation was thoroughly discussed, no solution which will relieve the present situation was arrived at.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 18.—E. R. Kincaid, who is accused of obtaining money by false pretenses, has obtained the services of Attorney M. W. Simpson, and will fight the charges made against him by William Zingg and A. J. Wilson. It is understood that Kincaid will base his defense on the grounds that when he issued the checks to the men, December 24, he had the necessary amount of money in the bank to pay them, and that it was due to dilatory methods on the part of Zingg and Wilson that the checks were not cashed.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 18.—Inquests were held yesterday afternoon to inquire into the deaths of Ole Olson and David Boaz. Olson's body was found in the estuary by a fisherman, and the evidence showed that the man was intoxicated when he started for the boat. It is believed that while attempting to climb the gangplank he fell into the estuary. The verdict was accidental death.

The second inquest showed that David Boaz, who died at the Terrace baths, where he resided for a number of months, died from natural causes.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 18.—N. D. Ingraham, Chief Forester of the State University Station at Santa Monica, is in Berkeley after a tour of the northern part of the State. Ingraham was sent to inspect the forests in Northern California planted from seeds furnished by the Department of Agriculture of the University. Most of the forests are of eucalyptus, and Ingraham reports that they are all doing remarkably well. He will be in Berkeley but a few days.

NO SOLUTION TO COAL FAMINE
PROBLEMSUBJECT IS DISCUSSED BY THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.Several Reasons for Shortage
Are Advanced by Members of Body.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—Discussion of the fuel situation at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night brought out the following reasons for the shortage of coal:

Firms that have a supply of coal will not sell to Berkeley dealers who were not their regular customers before the present scarcity.

Vessels which were formerly engaged in bringing coal into San Francisco harbor have been busy rushing cement and other supplies for the rebuilding of San Francisco.

On account of the trouble in securing men to sail lumber steamers, lumber has been brought in by railway cars which were formerly loaded with coal.

Several mines which were shut down on account of the lack of laborers, or because they could not compete with fuel oil, cannot be reopened for several months.

The coal famine was thoroughly reviewed by E. W. Rochester, a member of the Chamber of Commerce and an employee of the Western Fuel Company, which has been termed the "coal trust." Mr. Rochester admitted that his firm would not sell to Berkeley firms, but that it has supplied its other customers, on account of the fact that before the famine the Berkeley dealers had not been their regular customers. One of the main reasons for the famine, he said, was the fact that the mines in the vicinity of Puget Sound had not been shipping coal to this section of the coast, as all the coal was used in the north as quickly as it was mined.

"Many of the mines in the interior of California, including those at Tesla and Black Diamond, were closed down when oil was produced in large quantities for fuel purposes," said Mr. Rochester. "Australian steamers will not bring coal to San Francisco unless they can be assured of a return cargo. Ever since the San Francisco fire, steamers which formerly brought in coal have been used to carry cement and other materials for the reconstruction of San Francisco."

"Another reason for the serious shortage of coal is the fact that during the burning of San Francisco hundreds of thousands of tons of coal were destroyed in the coal yards. Although Seattle is in a coal center, it is also suffering from serious shortages, and many of the schools have been closed."

"The coal famine in Berkeley is a very serious one," said President Ross, of the Chamber of Commerce. "Berkeley needs coal and needs it badly. The dealers have been doing their utmost to obtain fuel, but it comes in such meager lots that it is quickly taken up as soon as it arrives."

J. W. Koch believed that Berkeley should have its own system of coal bunkers. "But," added Mr. Koch, "the coal bunkers would be of no use unless men of influence and money could keep them filled. STREET WORK DISCUSSED
BY BERKELEY TRUSTEESMany Subjects of Importance Come Before the Councilmen, Who Meet in Special Session.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—Street work occupied most of the attention of the Berkeley Board of Town Trustees at a special session last night, though other and more important matters were also discussed and acted upon. In the absence of Mayor Thomas Rickard, presided. Those present were Trustees Favors, Schand, Hoff and the chairman.

The clearing of the site recently purchased for the new town hall was ordered to be done through the regular method of advertising for bids on the work. A discussion as to whether or not the former owner of the lot could be forced to remove a large pile of loose dirt and fill in an excavation on the premises failed to receive the sanction of Town Attorney Johnson, and the matter was disposed of as mentioned above. Town Clerk Mendenhall informed the board that the deeds to the property had not yet been forwarded by Anson Blake, but that they would be soon.

In relation to the new town hall, the Trustees announced that many plans were being received for the structure. It has been decided that the building shall be of reinforced concrete. Local and outside architects are getting busy and completing elaborate plans for the building. The Trustees court much competition, as they wish to select something that is appropriate.

Town Engineer McClure was instructed to figure on the cost of culverting Strawberry creek, which runs through the town property. He will plan the style of culvert to be constructed.

The ordinance recently drawn up relative to the purchase of San Pablo Park tract from the West Berkeley Land Company was passed to print. A discussion was started to the effect that the town should have a time limit set on the street work which is to be done by the Land Company, according to the agreement of the sale. Town Attorney Johnson, however, announced that the board had no jurisdiction to force the matter, that it was entirely up to the realty company.

A resolution of intention was adopted to open Browning street to a uniform width of 60 feet from the north-easterly line of Addison street, north to the southerly line of University avenue, and from the southerly line of Channing street to the northerly line of Dwight way.

In view of the fact that Grove street is looked upon as one of the common business streets, it was ordered that a resolution of intention be passed to print to the effect that the street shall be widened to the width of 80 feet from University avenue south to Dwight way. Like action was taken relative to the widening of Grant street, between the two extremes. Ten feet, taken jointly from the west and east sides of the streets, will be the extent of the width.

Clerk Mendenhall surprised the board when he read a resolution of intention which had been held up since June last, and that was in relation to a proposed sewer to be constructed along Clarence street, between Russell and Webster. The resolution was passed to print.

Regarding the acceptance of maps by the town, the board passed a resolution which said that the board could not take final action on the acceptance of any map until it had first been approved by the street committee, the Town Engineer and the Superintendent of Streets.

It was also ordered that the City Engineer procure a glass covering, and perhaps a frame, for a large map of the town which had been recently purchased and which will hereafter be attached to the table at which the Trustees always sit in session.

The city proposes to purchase the lot owned by John and Sarah Fairchild and lying alongside the fire company on Emerson street. Harry Johnson, attorney, was appointed by the board to negotiate the sale.

Work at University of California Will Begin Next Week.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—Active training for the track season at the State University is to begin next week, rain or shine. Cross country runs will be started soon, and Christian athletes all aspirants, whether for sprints or long distances, to enter in these. The new men who have not been out before will sign up at training quarters the first of next week.

Captain Wilcox when seen yesterday was very optimistic regarding the outlook. He has been sizing up the new material and while he has not found any stars has found a few men with good records and who are said to be steady workers. Johns, 10, from Lick is among the most likely hurdlers and jumpers. Scaddin, 10 and Freeman, 10, both have good record in 220 and 440. Dannel, 10, has made good time in the 100 in several prep school meets. Vesper, 10, from Oakland also holds some broad jump records. On the whole WPCO figures that the 1917 class has about as good chance in the intercollegiate freshmen meet as the freshmen of last year.

It has not yet been definitely decided whether the Varsity meet will be held here or at Stanford. It is scheduled for here, but owing to some repairs being needed to the California oval and other circumstances there is every possibility that the meet will be transferred to Stanford.

LIBRARY RECEIVES BOOKS OF POEMS

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—The Library of the University of California has just received a volume of poems by the late Stanley Coghlin, entitled "Hathor." The book is edited by Benjamin P. Kurtz of the University. The author of the poems was formerly a member of the class of 1902, but did not graduate. Another book entitled "Poems of Love and Home," has been presented to the library by the author, Rev. W. Riley of Oilercent, Cal.

A noted California author has presented to the library the great Russian encyclopedia of eighty-four volumes.

CARNOT TRYOUTS TO BE HELD TUESDAY

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—The Carnot tryouts, which were to have been held Monday night, have been postponed to next Tuesday night. The tryouts will be held in Room 101, California Hall, at 7:45 p. m. The subject will be announced Tuesday afternoon at 5:20. There are, so far, only about twelve or fifteen men signed up for the tryouts.

WOMAN LEFT HER ESTATE TO FAMILY

The will of the late Mrs. Jennie E. Barrow was filed for probate yesterday, and leaves an estate of over $10,000 to her husband, Henry C. Barrow. A number of bequests are also made to sisters and brothers. Besides much valuable jewelry, the principal wealth of the estate consists of the property at the southeast corner of Telegraph avenue and Bancroft in Berkeley.

Mrs. Barrow died in Chicago on January 12.

TO PLACE WATER

NORTH BERKELEY IMPROVEMENT CLUB DISCUSSES A PLAN.

Public Spirited Men Will Work
Against Monopoly by the Railways.

BERKELEY, Jan. 18.—Public announcement was made last night at the meeting of the North Berkeley Improvement Club of a plan upon which prominent and public-spirited men have been working and studying to place the water front of Berkeley beyond all possible danger of monopolization by any railway or combination of railways.

The plan advises the opening up by condemnation proceedings all the east and west streets to tidewater. These would afford outlets to many railways, should they see it, but would be of little use unless there were something besides tidewater there. The plan last night made public is the acquisition by the city of a strip of land approximately 100 feet wide, and about two and one-half miles in length, extending along the whole bay shore of Berkeley. Not the bay shore in the common use of that term, but the line between the city and the State uplands.

To acquire this strip of land will cost approximately $10,000. Attorney Stacy W. Gibbs, who has thoroughly investigated the subject, reported last evening that $15,000 was the extreme limit of cost, but that it was possible that it might be done for as little as $9,000. When this estimate was given to the club, President Victor J. Robertson announced from the chair that he had been authorized to guarantee that the money would be advanced by a prominent and wealthy citizen of Berkeley, that this citizen would himself advance the necessary sum, as soon as good legal advice should declare the project feasible.

Mr. Gibbs, to whom the consulting members of the club had referred the matter for legal advice, without making it public, declared that he could see no legal or physical impediment to the success of the scheme that will once and for all place the city and reach of the city beyond monopolistic land-grabbing of her water front, for no matter how much land any railway might acquire by purchase within the line of the strip it is proposed to secure, the city would still own that strip, and would still be able to grant a number of competing railway rights of way to that strip over the streets that are now in the way of being opened up. This citizen would himself grant rights-of-way along the strip itself, without yielding title to the land.

TREASURES FOUND IN OUR AMERICAN FORESTS.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers of this and other countries. Even the untamed Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continued investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., believes that our American forests abound in medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them, and, in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the most marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action.

The reason why "Golden Medical Discovery" cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

To aid in healing old sores, or ulcers, apply Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve to the while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" to purify and enrich the blood.

Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve is cleansing and pain relieving. It destroys the bad odors arising from suppuration, or running, sores and puts them in the best possible condition for healing.

The "All-Healing Salve" is a superior dressing for all open, running, or suppurating sores or ulcers. For healing open wounds, cuts and scratches it is unsurpassed.

If your medicine dealer does not have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock mail 50 cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by return post.

In treating all open sores, or ulcers, boils, carbuncles and other swellings, it is important that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery be taken persistently to purify the blood and thereby remove the cause of the trouble. It is in the blood that the great battle of health has to be fought. The ulcers and sores are simply the scarlet flowers of disease, with roots running down into the blood. These roots must be eradicated or the disease will break out afresh. "Golden Medical Discovery" cleanses the blood of all foul and poisonous accumulations, pushes out the dead and waste matter, and thus purifies the entire blood current. Disease in the flesh must die out when it is no longer fed by foul blood.

"Golden Medical Discovery" effectively cures disease in the flesh by curing its cause in the blood.

Not less marvelous in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of women's most peculiar affections, weakness and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Purgative, as is amply testified by thousands of unswerving testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drainage, painful periods, irregularities, prolapso

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wraper.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

NOT FEMININE.

An amusing story, illustrative of French ideas of chivalry, is told of Prof. A. Guyot Cameron of Princeton, who for several years was professor of French at Yale. While in New Haven one night by the presence of a bat in his room, and appealed to his landlady for assistance. After climbing on several chairs and chasing the bat about the room for some time the woman finally succeeded in bringing it to the floor with a tennis racket and killed it. Telling some friends of the incident afterward, Prof. Cameron described the chase, and then added condescendingly, "Of course it was very good of Miss — and I appreciate her kindness, but really it was not at all feminine."—Boston Herald.

VALUABLE PAINTINGS MENACED BY FLAMES

Fire Threatens to Do Great Damage to the Albany Block Property on Broadway.

Total destruction of the valuable collection of pictures of F. M. Smith, the "Borax King," was threatened this morning when a fire broke out in his richly furnished offices and parlors in the Albany block at Fifteenth street and Broadway. A timely discovery of the blaze prevented a serious conflagration and damage to the amount of only $300 was done to the grate and mantle. Smoke was seen issuing from the Smith offices about 7:45 o'clock by J. B. Gee, superintendent of the building, and A. B. Ralston, assistant superintendent. The fire department was notified by telephone and responded immediately, assisting in extinguishing the fire. Gee and Ralston, together with Leslie Schulze and M. D. Hyde, the latter a prominent attorney with offices in the same building, hurriedly removed the valuable pictures and furniture from the room and as a result they were saved from being damaged. In order to put out the fire, which was eating its way through the floor joists, it was necessary to tear up the parquet carpet and cut the flooring. The fire had gained great headway and had burned through considerable floorboards. The grate was also torn down in the effort to extinguish the smoldering fire. F. M. Smith was notified immediately of the fire which had threatened to destroy his famous collection of pictures and antique furniture and hurried to the scene. The blaze had been extinguished, however, before his arrival. The work of repairing the damage has already been commenced. It is thought that the fire was started by a defective grate, but coals falling into and igniting the woodwork under the floor.

POISON STORY CALLED ABSURD

Physicians Find Oscar Kendall Died of Spinal Meningitis.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—The suspicion, created by a report from Portland that Oscar Kendall, the bodyguard of Francis J. Heney, was the victim of poison administered by some unknown parties, is scouted as absurd both by the physicians who attended Kendall in this city and by those connected with the office of Mr. Heney. Kendall died in this city at the German Hospital on January 7th. He was attended by Dr. G. C. Brackett, who called Dr. H. C. Moffitt in consultation. A postmortem performed by the two physicians showed that Kendall died of spinal meningitis, following an attack of pneumonia. The report from Portland, where the remains of Kendall were shipped, states that the internal organs of Kendall had been removed and strychnine was found in the stomach. "The internal organs were removed by us and were not replaced," said Dr. Moffitt yesterday. "The man died of meningitis following pneumonia. The strychnine found in the body was used for medicinal purposes. The statement that Kendall came to his death through poisoning is all rot." Detective William J. Burns shared the opinion of Dr. Moffitt. "The story that Kendall was poisoned is absurd," said he, "the man was suffering from pneumonia when we sent him to the German Hospital. We are not investigating the story, as we know it to be untrue. At the German Hospital yesterday it was stated that Kendall never showed any signs of poisoning. On the other hand he evinced all the symptoms of a patient suffering from meningitis."

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

Piano Sale for Two Days

Every nook and corner of our establishment is crowded with pianos, great many of them being second hand. These goods we have taken in exchange for combination pianos and other high class goods, and some have reverted to us. We are going to offer them tomorrow, Saturday and Monday, at prices that will move them immediately, provided you consider the grade of goods offered.

Following is a partial list of pianos placed on sale for tomorrow:

- One large Fisher Piano $265
- One good Knicker piano, medium size $195
- One Emerson Piano, fine condition $195
- One Smith & Barnes, brand new $265
- One slightly used Harrington Piano $285
- One Marshall Piano, large size $115

(This is a good practice piano.)

Any of the foregoing pianos are worth at least 25 per cent more than we ask for them, but owing to the congested condition of our stock we are compelled to close them out quickly, hence these reductions in prices. A stool and scarf will be given with each piano and an exchange agreement allowing you to exchange any time within three years, and full amount paid applied on any other new piano we carry, will accompany each piano sold.

We have a great many square pianos, and some second hand organs, which we will practically give away. If you need a square piano for practice bring in $25 in cash with you and take any square piano in the house. We also have some good organs, of which you can take your choice for $25. Remember the sale is for Saturday and Monday only, as this will be sufficient time for us to close out what we have on sale, about thirty or forty in number.

NEAR DEATH IN WAGON UPSET

Two Men Hurl'd Twenty Feet Into Deep Gully—Surrey Is Wrecked.

Hurled twenty feet into a deep gully by the overturning of a surrey on the Tunnel road, just over the Contra Costa county line, M. Horton of this city and Richard Aylward and C. M. Ward of Goldfield, narrowly escaped death, their surrey being wrecked and both horses cut and bruised. The members of the party would have fared worse had it not been for the fact that the ground where they fell was soft.

The three men hired a team at J. F. Mulqueeny's stable at San Pablo avenue and Twenty-eighth street last Sunday and started for Walnut Creek. Early this morning Horton reappeared at the stable and told of the accident. Mulqueeny at once started to look for the team and found the surrey overturned in the gully, but no trace of the horses. After a vain search he called at the police station to report the loss of the team, only to learn that the horses had been found in the tunnel by Dr. F. R. Woolsey of Berkeley, and that both animals were safe in his stable.

COLOR AND LIGHT.

The peculiar simplicity of the country daisy in the south is illustrated by a story told by Representative John Sharp Williams.

An old negro had gone to a post office in Mississippi and offered for the mail a letter that was over the weight specified for a single stamp.

"This is too heavy," said the postmaster. "You will have to put another stamp on it."

The old daisy's eyes widened in astonishment. "Will another stamp make it any lighter, boss?" he asked.—Harper's Weekly

TWO HOLIDAYS.

The other day in St. Louis David Warfield decided that he did not want to spend a Christmas performance on Christmas afternoon. Why should the actor be compelled to work his fool head off on the gladsome holiday and especially the actor who was making all the money he possibly could make, anyway? asked David of his shadow. And the shadow answered, "Why?" Whereupon David telegraphed Mr. Belasco, suggesting that as he (Warfield) wanted to enjoy his Christmas and Christmas dinner like other worthy fellows in the vineyard, would it not be better to cut out the extra holiday matinee on the occasion? Mr. Belasco replied, diplomatically and generously, that David could go as far as he liked, and he (Belasco) would wish him many happy returns of the day.

Therefore there was no matinee of "The Music Master" in St. Louis on Christmas and there was none on New Year's. The omission of this traditional performance was spoken of in every paper and talked of by every reader of every paper. The agent was happy, Mr. Warfield was happy. Mr. Belasco was content, and the public that had intended spending the Christmas and New Year's matinees watching David Warfield made happy by two extra matinees during Christmas and New Year's week.—Inter Ocean.

MATTOS TALKS ABOUT CHANCES

How Governor's Withdrawal of Nominations Affected the Appointees.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—There was no surprise depicted on the features of any of the members of the senate when the sergeant-at-arms of that body announced a message from the governor. There were two members present, however, who were more interested in the announcement than the others. These were Senators Belshaw, of Contra Costa, and Senator Mattos, of Contra Costa, Alameda county. It has always been believed that Governor Gillett would withdraw the names of the men whom Governor Pardee appointed or reappointed, on the last day of his term in office. He was somewhat slow in making the withdrawal, but the senate made no attempt to hasten the matter or to show impatience while the names lay before the committee on executive appointments.

COMMITTEE IN NO HURRY.

The committee had made up its mind to await the pleasure of the chief executive, no matter how long it might be before he should reach the nominations in question.

The message proved to be a withdrawal of all the nominations Governor Pardee had made, and as the clerk read the names, Senator Mattos checked them off until his own name was reached. He then put up his pencil, raised his head, looked across the aisle and smiled at Senator Leavitt, one of his nearest senatorial neighbors and Leavitt smiled in return and sought to reassure Senator Mattos by saying that all of the nominations would be withdrawn.

Senator Belshaw, on the other hand, had a very sedate countenance, and so as outward appearances went, he did not hear the news of the withdrawal of his nomination as he was engaged while the message was being read.

Belshaw had been appointed by Governor Pardee to the position of prison director, and Mattos had received appointment to membership on the State Board of Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco. The former office is honorary, while that of harbor commissioner carries a salary of $325 per month. It is now nearly five months since Mattos was appointed to the place, and he will soon be able to draw down something over $1200, whether or not Governor Gillett should reappoint him.

FATE OF APPOINTEES.

An impression prevails here that Senator Mattos will not be reappointed, but that, on the other hand, Belshaw will be restored to the place to which Governor Pardee raised him. Belshaw is a member of the senate committee on prisons and reformatories, and will, of course, be able to help the prisoners along in the matter of appropriations, and it is thought that the governor will take this fact into consideration in determining Senator Belshaw's case.

STATUS OF MATTOS' CASE.

Senator Mattos told THE TRIBUNE correspondent that he had had a short talk on the subject of his appointment, and that the governor had stated that he had not as yet been able to look into the situation. The senator told the governor that he had not any more of great influence back of him for reappointment, but at the same time he represented about 70,000 Portuguese in the State, a class of the population who were American citizens who had not thus far been given any political positions until Governor Pardee had raised him to the position of member of the harbor commissioners of San Francisco.

Senator Mattos further stated that on several occasions the availability of the Portuguese standing together in political matters had been suggested, but that he had always opposed such a move. They were in Alameda 3500 of that class of people, and if they should elect to stand together they would be able to do something that would attract attention in political circles in that county, as also in the State. The senator further stated that he stood well with his countrymen, and evidence of the fact was the presentation to him of a gold watch valued at $250, which was presented when he became grand president of the Portuguese Benevolent Union.

THE REASON WHY

We So Strongly Endorse and Recommend Vinol to the People of Oakland.

Mr. Specht of The Owl Drug Company says: "We do not believe there is a man, a woman or child in Oakland, whom our famous cod liver preparation, Vinol, will not benefit at this season of the year."

"We believe there is no need for so many people to drag around and run down and debilitated or for old people to remain weak and infirm when we guarantee Vinol will restore health and strength."

Continued Mr. Specht of The Owl Drug Company: "For centuries cod liver oil has been recognized as the grandest of all body-building agents for wasted human strength and vitality, but on account of the nauseating and system-clogging oil which enveloped its curative properties few could take it with benefit."

In Vinol you get in a concentrated form every element of the curative and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless system-clogging oil eliminated and tonic iron added. "Vinol is guaranteed by over five thousand of the leading doctors of the United States to create strength for old people, for the run-down, tired and debilitated, weak, sickly women and children, and after a severe sickness."

"We ask every such person in Oakland to try Vinol. It costs nothing if it fails."

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Oakland, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

WANT COMMON SCHOOLS FOR THE COMMON PEOPLE

Lamentable Defects in State Educational System Pointed Out by Special Committee of Assembly.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—The Committee on Education of the Assembly, of which John Strobridge of Hayward is a member, has filed a voluminous report, jumping, metaphorically on the accredited system of high schools to the University of California, suggesting the creation of a new State Board of Education, criticizing the system of paying high school scholars for the University of California at the expense of those who cannot take the course, lamenting that competent teachers cannot be secured, and making an earnest plea to save the common schools for the common people.

SHARP CRITICISM.

The following criticism shows, in a degree, the feeling of the committee as to how things are being conducted at present.

"Three 'R's' are constantly being neglected. Many students go out of the common schools with a smattering of all kinds of studies but unable to intelligently express themselves in English, much less to legibly write or correctly speak. When a child enters a high school, the condition is, if anything, still worse. Here again the chief aim is not to prepare the pupil for the work of life but to prepare him for the university. The result is a small minority go to a smattering of studies which will later be taken at the university and the majority of pupils become down under the strain. The time has come when the course of study in the grammar and high schools must be simplified. More attention must be given to essentials. The aim must be to make men and women who are able to enter upon their life and not merely upon the career of scholars. It must make the common schools for the common people."

QUALIFIED TEACHERS.

The most pressing need of the State school system is for a larger number of qualified teachers in the elementary schools. School districts are in constant report extreme difficulty in obtaining competent teachers and still teacher when once secured. Several districts have been experienced in the opening of school at the proper time owing to inability to secure competent teachers. Normal schools are supplying a smaller proportion of the new teachers required than they did a few years ago. Boards of education have to select applicants to teachers certificates in some instances, qualified persons have to be personally interviewed and to meet no applicants. One county superintendent is reported as summing up the entire output of one normal school in a single year as being the demand for qualified teachers.

ALL SORTS OF DERELICTS.

Among the derelicts in the report is the following: "Our schools have held their own in numbers. The teachers are not so good and are getting worse all sorts of derelicts have been able to get into the ranks of the teachers. The inefficiency of the supply of teachers. Teachers who can successfully teach are leaving the ranks of the teaching profession and are leaving the profession and compensation for less exciting work."

POOR WAGES.

The committee says that this is occasioned by inadequate pay as compared with other professions and increased difficulties and expense in meeting the requirements of schools which aim to educate teachers. It also suggests that our remedy for existing conditions must be by making the teaching profession more remunerative.

SCHOOL CENSUS AGE.

One plan suggested for this purpose is to increase the amount of State aid to the primary and grammar schools. For this purpose the committee suggests that the school census include all children between the ages of five and twenty years instead of five and seventeen years as is the practice at this time. This plan the committee states would give an increase of $500,000 a year for the payment of salaries. Another plan would be to increase the amount to be paid by the State to the counties for each pupil census child. This would give an increase of $500,000. Assemblyman Strobridge of Hayward is strongly in favor of this plan.

GRADUATED SALARIES.

The committee declares in favor of the establishment of a graduated salary scale for all teachers in the State. A relative small increase in salary over the present scale would result in a large increase in the number of teachers. It is also suggested that the State should take the payment of teachers' salaries and accompanying the report with a new and better system of compensation, providing the introduction of manual training and domestic science in primary and grammar schools and recommending that the State in its support of schools expend a larger sum in the improvement of industrial education.

PROFESSIONS VS. AGRICULTURE.

The committee states that, as in high school communities in a primary and secondary grades by suitable curriculum studies. It is not necessary to state that the State should give a higher education to a larger number of young men and women who can enter professions than to those who aim to adopt agricultural pursuits. This is something wrong in the system that accomplishes this result.

UNIFORMITY IN TEXT-BOOKS.

There are 175 high schools in the State and each high school board has authority to select text-books and establish a course of study. A student moving from one district to another is compelled to purchase an entirely new set of books to read the condition the Legislature. The committee holds should contract upon some central body the power to adopt text-books and prepare courses of study. The State Board of Education, however, is now too overburdened with duties to attend to this requirement.

FREE TEXT-BOOKS.

To furnish State school text books to all pupils would require an amendment to the Constitution. Besides, it might not be economical or wise to undertake the scheme. The committee deems it to be wiser for the Legislature to enact a law that will give to each county the power to furnish text-books within the limits that the Constitution permits to permit the furnishing to be done by the State.

SUPPLEMENTARY TEXT-BOOKS.

The committee states the complaint against supplementary text-books is well founded and presents a list of forbidden books to suggest to schools the availability of supplementary text-books and compelling school districts to furnish the same if such books should be required.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The committee in discussion of the supervision of schools, says the State Board of Education has but little real power other than to provide a list of books or text-books. The State should exercise some power of supervision over the schools, but the committee provides no means to that end and the Legislature should therefore be amended. The present State Board of Education cannot exercise any more power of supervision. The report then takes this thing at its body:

FLING AT STATE BOARD.

"Moreover, it will be noticed that the dominating influence of the board is that radiating from 'higher education' and no low would be sanctioned by the people that would vest in them the control of the entire school system."

The committee then declares that it has prepared a constitution for the State providing for a new State Board of Education as a necessary and preliminary step towards providing an adequate system of school supervision by the State.

ACCREDITED SCHOOLS.

The committee jumps upon the system of accrediting schools to the University. The effect of the practice it says is the dividing of high school pupils into two classes, those who are to go to the university after they leave high school and those who are to commence the battle of life after they leave the same institution. The effect is demoralizing to the pupils. It may ultimately result in prematurely driving away from school many of those who would otherwise complete the high school course. The committee says the present system should be condemned because the purpose of a school system is not alone the producing of scholars but rather to make young men and women more capable and better fitted to enter upon any chosen occupation and to assume the severe duties and responsibilities of life. Managers of the several normal schools are urged to make strenuous efforts to elevate these institutions to a higher plane of usefulness and endeavor, if possible, to enlarge the output of teachers."

ASKS KAISER TO FREE HIM

Man in Nebraska Insane Asylum Appeals to German Emperor.

NORFOLK, Neb., Jan. 18.—Joseph Holdoeber, an inmate of the State Asylum here, has appealed to the Emperor of Germany to secure his release. Holdoeber is a German citizen. For two years the question of Holdoeber's sanity has been under discussion. His friends assert that he is perfectly sane and different physicians have so pronounced him. Holdoeber says he is the victim of a plot on the part of relations.

CROSS OCEAN TO STUDY COAST SURVEY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Major C. F. Close and Captain G. R. Frith, royal engineers, who come here on behalf of the British government to try to obtain permission from the secretary of war to study geodetic and coast survey, arrived yesterday on the steamer Majestic.

Major Close said that it was admitted abroad that our system of geodetic and coast survey was far superior to that of Europe.

SHOT ENDS LIFE OF RAILWAY MAN.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Archibald B. Flidridge, 40 years of age, killed himself last night with a revolver. The shooting is believed by the police to have been accidental.

Mr. Flidridge was assistant chief engineer of the Burlington road and was regarded highly by President Harris of the Burlington and President Elliott of the Northern Pacific, with whom he had been associated for eight years.

PRAISES OF OAKLAND ARE SUNG LOUDLY BY MISS OLGA NETHERSOLE

ACTRESS IS ENTHUSIASTIC

"Wonderful Audiences" She Says to Representative of The Tribune.

BY BETTY MARTIN.

"I'll tell you another thing," said Louis Nethersole to me in an undertone, "theatrical managers all along the line are watching this engagement."

By way of explanation, he and I were standing in the foyer of the Macdonough yesterday afternoon at the "Sapho" matinee.

"They want to see just how much inquiry Oakland will stand for before booking a company here for a week," he smiled as he said this, and I, knowing our city's reputation for conservatism, and now thoroughly dispelled provincialism, joined in the smile, which, I beg to explain, was not of a liquid nature.

"Your sister," I asked, overlooking the reflection cast by the word "iniquity," "is she pleased with the reception here?"

"Delighted! And I'm sure she'll be glad personally to tell you about it. She'll be off the stage in a few moments, and I'll take you around to see her. There she is off now—come!"

It is a round-about trip from foyer to dressing-room of the theater, and means a short walk outside and around the corner of Fourteenth street to the rear door of the stage.

TRIP WORTH WHILE.

But it was worth while on this occasion, for Olga Nethersole received me, as a representative of Oakland and the TRIBUNE, literally, with open arms. It was in the second act where she is off the stage for about five minutes, the time devoted to "Sapho" productions, when, fired with domestic visions, the belle of the Latin quarter disappears into Jean's kitchen, presumably to prepare dinner. She wore that magnificent gown of indescribable red, with the strings of pearls about her neck, and her fingers were covered with priceless gems, but there was nothing suggestive of the part in her language.

I want to tell you how impressed I am with the audiences here," she exclaimed enthusiastically. "They are wonderful, wonderful! Nowhere, except in Paris and Vienna, and a few other of the larger cities of Europe, have I seen anything like them. Ah! Here Miss Nethersole gave an indrawn sigh, "they are great—the people here—they rise to one. Do you know," at the words the star brought forward her two white arms with outstretched palms and fingers widely spread. "I am continually," she said, "asking, demanding," with the word the extended hands closed tightly, "of my audiences. It means so much to be understood. That's why I keep so much apart from others when I'm off the stage. I dare not allow myself to become absorbed in other things. My profession to me means everything."

MONEY NOT ALL.

"And Oakland has given me her approval! I go from here with her blessing. Ah, while I appreciate the financial success—that isn't all that an actress wants. Appreciation means more than money—and Oakland has given it."

"Do you know I'd rather play to a house two-thirds full and be understood, than appear before a crowded house unable to comprehend my meaning? But Californians are wonderfully subtle—they rise to one's self. It must be the influence of the Latin races here."

"Possibly," I acquiesced quietly, for two reasons—one being that I agreed entirely concerning the influence, the other, that, had I so desired, I could not have contradicted for Miss Nethersole's time to speak was short.

"I was over in San Francisco Sunday afternoon—at the de Youngs. You know them?" she paused for a reply. Of course I heard of them.

CHARMING GIRL.

"Miss de Young—Helen—is a charming girl, so well informed, so—"

"She's had a great advantage," The suggestion had its effect.

"Of course, and her father—believe me, I couldn't say a word during all that dinner. Mr. de Young told me so many things about the rebuilding of the city. They were simply astounding. He's given me facts and data, too, and when I got home I'm going to write it up for a London paper."

"But the people there can hardly comprehend, not having seen it," I interposed.

"Coming from an eye-witness, they will! I have rather a graphic style—a feminine touch, maybe, but that's not altogether to be despised, is it?" With this query Miss Nethersole smiled quizzically. The question having a somewhat personal side, was a sequel. Its import was broken by the prompter: "Miss Nethersole!" The call came clearly. "Thank you, yes," replied she. Then turning to me, spoke quickly, as, indeed, she had been doing all along.

"I want to take this opportunity to thank Oakland for my reception here. I am so pleased with it that I've spent fifteen dollars in telegrams arranging for a re-appearance next year."

WILL APPEAR AGAIN.

"And you succeeded?"

"Yes. The managers had already booked me for the big cities of the East—New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other places, but I've had the time so changed that next year I'm to play in Oakland for one week, and in San Francisco for a whole month!"

"Miss Nethersole!" again came the call, this time with an imperativeness not to be denied.

"Yes, coming! Goodbye till next year! And she disappeared once more, and for the last time during this engagement to confront an Oakland audience."

As for me, I started to return to the front of the house, again accompanied by the manager, Mr. Louis Nethersole, who chatted the while about the time intervening between Sunday night and Thursday afternoon.

The company, he said, had just come down from Stockton, where they'd made a one-night stand. "What sort of a house did you have?" I asked.

"A fine house," came the quick and unpremeditated reply, but if we'd stayed there another night we'd have starved."

"Why," I inquired, sympathetically.

"Are the hotels so bad?"

"Not the hotels—no, he shrugged the question aside—but it's a dead little town—a funny place," continued he, reflectively. "They turned out for one night, but nobody'd have come if we'd played there twice. It would have been a frost."

So much for the Slough City.

"But in Fresno!" Here Mr. Nethersole made an impressive pause, "the theater was jammed. We had a splendid house in San Jose, too. They wanted us to stay a week. But they never forget Oakland, never."

STANDING OFF CITY.

Here, reader of THE TRIBUNE, you have Oakland's reputation from the lips of the star to whom artistic success means much. You also have the city's standing from the managerial point of view, which, generally speaking, means the dollars and cents end of the proposition.

And both spell the word "Forward."

For the first time in her history Oakland has had an opportunity to show just how far she would go toward supporting a first-class theatrical engagement.

The story has already been told. Despite the fact that the weather has been the most inclement experienced here in years, the houses were nightly overcrowded so much so that, contrary to custom, the management refused to reserve seats by telephone, and during the latter end of the week dozens of people stood from beginning to end, rather than not witness a performance.

Mr. Nethersole was right when he said that this engagement meant much to Oakland. It means that hereafter our city will rank A1 among the show places of the West, and that Oakland will, in the future, have the best theatrical talent procurable.

MADE A SUCCESS.

Miss Crothers, whose play, "The Three of Us," has made such a great success, was a teacher in Mrs. Whetstone's dramatic school. She occasionally tried her hand at short plays for the pupils of the school to act in; when, finally, she wrote "The Three of Us," she took the MS. to Miss Marbury, the well-known play-broker, to dispose of for her. Miss Marbury had the play for nearly two years, but she could not convince any of the managers that it was a good one. Some liked it a little and came almost to the point of accepting it, others did not like it at all; and Miss Crothers was on the point of giving up all thoughts of writing plays and going back to teaching. She felt very much discouraged, but Miss Marbury told her there were still other managers and to keep up her spirits. One day, when she was feeling particularly blue, she was walking up Fifth avenue with Miss Marbury, and talking about her discouragements, when a clean, crisp, one-dollar bill came sailing through the air and fell at her feet. She looked all round; there was no one near who could have dropped it. She looked up at the windows and saw no one. "That is meant for you," said Miss Marbury. "It is a good omen; it means that money will be thrown at your feet. Pick it up and see if things don't change from now on." Miss Crothers cheered up, put the dollar bill in her pocket, and later in the day called at Miss Marbury's office, where she learned that Mr. Walter N. Lawrence had accepted her play and was going to produce it with Miss Carlotta Nilsen in the leading part. "The Three of Us" made an instant success and Miss Crothers has more engagements to write plays than she can fulfill for many long months. —Putnam's.

"Mrs. Wattleson has won a prize of $500 for a magazine article on how to live comfortably on $1000 a year."

"Yes; she was telling me a few days ago that she just had to do something to earn a little extra money, as it had become impossible for her and her husband to get along on his $75 a week."

WOULD STUDY SALTON SEA

Offers Government Experts Opportunity to Learn of Evaporation.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 18. — W. F. Martin, assistant engineer in the department of California bureau of hydrography, has submitted a report, the result of extended investigations, to W. B. Clapp, head of the department, recommending that the United States government establish a station on the shores of Salton Sea for the study of evaporation. The recommendation is made on the supposition that the break in the Colorado river will be closed. Otherwise there would be no opportunity for scientific study along the lines proposed.

Mr. Martin expresses the opinion that Salton Sea, under normal conditions, offers advantages for the study of evaporation which are to be found at no other place, and believes that the results would be of general scientific value.

PAID ALIMONY TO HIS WIFE

Citation for Contempt in Case of Carlton M. Cornwell is Dismissed.

Carlton M. Cornwell paid the $50 alimony he owed Marie A. Cornwell, so the citation for contempt of court was dismissed this morning by Judge Waste. The court ordered a short time ago, when the divorce action was begun, that Cornwell should pay his wife $25 a month alimony, and upon his failure to provide the money for December and January, Mrs. Cornwell resorted to the assistance of the court.

HOUSE VOTES TO INCREASE SALARIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—By a vote of 133 to 95 the House today voted that the salaries of senators, representatives and the delegates from Porto Rico, Hawaii and Alaska be increased to $7500 a year, after March 4, 1907, and fixing the salaries of the vice-president, speaker and members of the cabinet at $12,000.

MAIN SUBJECTS FOR LAWMAKERS

Bills of All Kinds Presented for Consideration of Both Legislative Houses.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—Only preparatory work has yet been done by the Legislature. Bills are gradually coming back from the printer; the committees in both houses are organizing out of their consideration of bills will not commence until Monday.

LEAVITT AND CAMINETTI

Senator Leavitt and a little feeling of annoyance in his reply to Senator Caminetti when the appointment of three members was under consideration today. The question was the confirmation of the men who were to be paid at the rate of $3 per day for the purpose of keeping the Senate chamber in a presentable condition. The senator fromameda county declared that the points in question did not exceed the regular allotment. Caminetti jumped to his feet with an objection of the kind and said that so far as the whole senate was concerned there would be no allotment.

This apparently annoyed Senator Leavitt who from that time called.

So far as the gentleman fromameda county is concerned, it will be a term allotment, but it is not to be addressed to the majority of the Senate. There was confusion in the Senate and many took it as a challenge.

PRINTING BILL

The first bill presented to the Senate today, the members of the Senate and the House, was the bill for the printing of the bills of the Legislature. The bill had been favorably reported by the Finance Committee and it went through both houses without a dissent.

YOUTHS TO LEAVE PENITENTIARY

Reforms suggested by the State Prison Commission, the bill for the matter of youths to leave the penitentiary, was introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

DIRECT PRIMARY

There is a number of bills in both houses which propose to introduce into this State what is known as the direct primary. A system of nominating candidates for office by the vote of the people, instead of by the vote of the party convention and the bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

STETSON ON LUNACY BILLS

Assemblyman Stetson of Oakland is working on a bill for the purpose of which is to prevent the removal of the insane from the State hospital. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

PREVENTING USURY

Assemblyman Isidor of Berkeley is preparing a bill for the purpose of preventing usury. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

PRINTING LOTTERY ADS

The Judicial Committee of the Assembly is preparing a bill for the purpose of preventing the printing of lottery advertisements. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

DEFENDANTS THIRTY DAYS

Another bill giving a defendant in a law suit thirty days to prepare his case was introduced today. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

CHANGE OF VENUE ON AFFIDAVIT

Another one of Johnson's bills which enables an accused man to secure a change of venue by filing an affidavit to the effect that he believes a certain judge is prejudiced against him was introduced today. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate and it is expected that many more of them will be carried out before the close of the session. The bill was introduced on Monday and it has already received a favorable report and there is no reason to doubt that it will pass. The bill provides that youths under 15 years of age who are in the penitentiary shall be placed in a separate building and that the change be made for the purpose of giving the youths a chance to reform.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The young and the sometimes old ladies who are about to become brides and who are required to travel from one part of a large county with the object of their affection to the office of the County Clerk to get a marriage license will appreciate the bill of Senator Williams of San Bernardino county which proposes, by means of an enactment to do away with the necessity for such a premarital journey. Senator Williams proposes to give authority to the justice of the peace of the district in which the parties reside to issue the license and it is necessary for the nuptial rite at the same time.

BRYAN TO SPEAK HERE

The Democrats of the Senate and Assembly are congratulating themselves that William J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate for President, is heading this way. They have taken up the matter of Bryan's coming to the purpose of trying to induce him to come to this city and address both houses of the Legislature. Bryan is expected to be in the neighborhood of Oakland about the first of February and it is the purpose of Senators Caminetti and Belmont to have him meet Bryan at Oakland and invite him to make his appearance here. In the meantime the Democrats in question will have received the permission of the Republican majority of the Legislature for the use of the chamber for that purpose. Senator Leavitt told THE TRIBUNE correspondent that the matter of allowing the halls to be used by Bryan will be settled in a caucus which will be called before many days. There will be a condition insisted on in the event that the Republican comes here and that is that in whatever he may have to say before the Legislature he must not touch upon a political topic of any kind. Senator Caminetti says he was a delegate to the Chicago convention which nominated Bryan in 1896.

OAKLANDER TO INSPECT HALL

R. T. Miller to Pass Upon Safety of Temporary Meeting Place of Legislature.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—An Oakland man has been accepted to inspect the building in which the Legislature is meeting at the present time and to report as to whether or not it is in a condition to withstand the test as to its strength to which it will be put by the throngs of people which will visit it at various times during the present session especially when measures of importance are under consideration.

MEN OF EXPERIENCE

These commissioners must have had experience in the handling of goods at previous expositions so that the men who will be in charge of the exhibit can be made up of men of experience. The commissioners are to receive a salary of $200 a month with traveling expenses of $200 each and a secretary who will be appointed will be allowed a salary of $200 a month with $1000 as traveling expenses.

DIVIDING SANTA CLARA COUNTY.

This session promises to be busy in the matter of attempts to form new counties. It is at this time that measures are being introduced in the Legislature and it is expected that a bill will be introduced before the session closes to divide Santa Clara county into two.

WHEELER DOES NOT SEEK PLACE

Charles S. Wheeler, the distinguished member of the University of California, who is in this city and who is expected to be a candidate for the office of Governor in 1910, has been asked by Governor Gillett to accept the position of Secretary of the State and he has declined the offer.

CHRONIC ULCERS

EXTERNAL EVIDENCE OF INTERNAL POISON

Whenever a sore or ulcer refuses to heal, it is a sure sign of a diseased condition of the blood. The sore itself is simply an outside evidence of some internal poison, and the only way to cure it is to remove the deep underlying cause. Sores and Ulcers originate usually from a retention in the system of bodily waste matters and impurities. These should pass off through the natural avenues of waste, but because of a sluggish condition of the different members they are retained in the system to be taken up by the blood. This vital fluid soon becomes unhealthy or diseased, and the skin gives way in some weak place and a Sore or Ulcer is formed. The constant drainage of impurities through a sore causes it to fester, grow red and inflamed and eat deeper into the surrounding flesh, and often there is severe pain and some discharge. S. S. S. is the remedy for Sores and Ulcers. It is nature's blood purifier, made entirely of vegetable matter, known to be specific for all blood diseases and disorders. S. S. S. goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and removes the poison and impure matter, so that the sore is no longer fed with impurities, but is nourished and cleansed with a stream of healthy, rich blood. Then the place begins to heal, new flesh is formed, the inflammation subsides and when S. S. S. has thoroughly cleansed the circulation the place heals permanently. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired will be sent free to all who write.

HOW LOS ANGELES HOPES TO ANNEX HER SUBURBS

Measure Which Oakland Must Employ for the Purpose of Consolidating With Outside Towns.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—No move has yet been made in the Legislature by Los Angeles for the purpose of securing legislation which will enable her to consolidate with or annex all the suburbs in her vicinity.

THE TRIBUNE correspondent today, however secured a copy of the proposed amendment, which the consolidation commissioner of that city proposes to introduce in the Legislature with the hope of accomplishing the purpose referred to.

This instrument is here summarized

LIBERAL OFFER.

Being desirous of contributing our share to the comfort and welfare of the legislature we will make no charge for Mr. Miller's services further than such expense as may be incurred in traveling and doing the inspection work. Mr. Miller has never been in Sacramento and, therefore, has no local affiliation.

The committee in charge of the work of inspection comprises Senators Lynch McKee of Sacramento and Belshaw of Antioch.

Both houses of the legislature adjourned at noon today until next Monday morning and at the time of adjournment Expert Miller had not arrived.

Women with pale, colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills which are made for the blood nerves and complexion.

MEDICAL.

DR. SYLVESTER'S Office.

517 23d st. (near Telegraph ave.), Oakland, Cal.

Leading Specialist for Women.

Ladies—If you are suffering from any ailment peculiar to your sex, worried about your condition and need help, come to this famous specialist for the following reasons:

First—He is a well-trained physician and surgeon, with qualifications recognized by the highest medical authority and truly the only regular graduate specialist in the West.

Second—With his painless and harmless methods known to no physician but him, he gives you relief from all chronic (drugs) and acute operations or detention from your occupation.

Third—His broad experience, his 19 years of success without one single failure, with the most obstinate, obscure and complicated cases, where all other specialists have failed, is a surest—man to consult when you need help.

Why suffer disappointment, pain, anxiety and endanger your life and health by employing quacks and self-styled specialists when you may have advice from a man eminent in the profession absolutely free of charge?

Free of fee and you safely trust yourself in his care and be assured of prompt and happy results. Consultation confidential and a strictly private sanitarium when required.

Hours, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Open Sundays.

OFF THE MARKET

If Not Bought This Week

We have a five-room cottage near 20th and San Pablo that we can only offer for this week. It will then be held for a sale in the market. For everyone knows, San Pablo and vicinity are booming. This place is on the west side of a fine street, cement walks, big six-foot basement, similar to one across the way that has just been raised a trifle and fitted into a flat at $5 rental. The house is modern in every respect, a perfect beauty. For five days only, $250; $150 down and $25 a month.

A LITTLE PALACE

Almost Given Away

We have on East Seventeenth st. a most elegant buy. It is four blocks from the local close to the car line, on a beautiful hillside, sunny side of street; three rooms downstairs, two up; fireplace, gas, electricity; lot, 55 by 140, with front walk, a large open lot, everything in the house new, modern, elegant; only $2500.

A REAL HOME BUY

Near Idora Park, street cars, Key Route, a large five-room house with a seven-foot basement, forty-one lot, cement walks, beautiful street. This is a most desirable property inside as well as out. The rooms take the space of six 8-room houses, include a very large reception hall and fine bath room. There is more roominess and comfort, and genuine attractiveness about this home than any place for the same price on the market $3800.

ANOTHER WONDER UNCOVERED IN NEVADA

Recent mining history in Nevada almost reads like a tale from the Arabian Nights. Goldfield, Tonopah, Atlantic City and the rest of them have, it would seem, only begun to develop their hidden treasures. Less than a year ago Mohawk went begging. At that time one of the men living in one of the States of the Nevada Valley sent $200 to a prominent brokerage firm of San Francisco telling them to buy Mohawk. The other day he wrote to the firm asking if his little $200 "investment" had ever amounted to anything. He wrote him that upon that day he could get $34,500 in gold for his stock. But everybody knows of Mohawk. The latest strike is that recently made on the Consolidated Mining Company. This claim shows thirty-seven feet of ore body, two and one-half feet of which is high-grade shipping. The geological location is the same as that of the Fairview and Wonder districts in Churchill county, Nevada. A remarkable feature of this strike, especially for the State of Nevada, is that it is in a district where they have not enough tail for 100 years and water in abundance. There is no telling what the dry, arid plains of Nevada will yet yield in mineral wealth. It seems there is no limit to its possibilities.

$50 to $150 To You for Going Six Blocks

Our large and commodious wholesale quarters are crowded to the doors with new and slightly used and old pianos, shipped from our agents and small San Francisco stores. They were all taken in exchange on the wonderful marvel of the age, the piano with the player in its case, which can be played by hand or pneumatically.

Prior to the opening of our new building in the burned district we opened two small stores, one at 1341 Golden Gate avenue, near Fillmore street, and one at 1466 Bush street, near Van Ness avenue, having no room except for our new regular samples, all exchanges are being shipped to our Oakland wholesale rooms. These are the largest in Oakland, not having been able to secure suitable location, we offer everything to you at the same price we charge to our retail dealers.

If you will take the trouble to go six blocks you can see for yourself the exceptional opportunities that are offered.

We are paying no retail rent and charge you no retail profit.

We suppose you know that the Heine Piano Co. is the only piano house doing business direct from their own factory in the East. This gives you advantage of from $75.00 to $150.00 on each piano as compared with other regular retail prices.

The following list will give you an idea of the low prices that we are making on pianos taken in exchange on the Player Piano, the piano of the future:

Three Fishers	$59, $90, $117
One Steinway	$120
One Schiller—One Sohmer	$85.00
Knabe $102—One Vose $200
One Chickering	$90
One Weber, large size	$95.00
One $650.00 Reed & Sons, slightly used	$295.00
One Upright Steinway	$140.00
One $500 Oliver, to close out	$235.00

LIQUOR MEN HAVE HEARING

Discussion of Protests Before License Committee of City Council.

Discussion of the protests of two hundred and thirty residents of Piedmont against the application of Richard Jones, of 4101 Piedmont avenue, for a liquor license, was postponed for two weeks by the license committee of the City Council last night, owing to the absence of Councilman McAdam, representative from Piedmont. About a dozen women attended the meeting to make protests.

The protest of the police against the saloon of Gordon and Ward, at Atlantic and Willow streets, was heard by the committee, but action was postponed for two weeks. Policemen Fahy and Fenton testified that the saloon was disorderly and that on many occasions it had been necessary for them to interfere. The officers also claimed that a house of ill repute is being conducted over the saloon. Chief of Police Wilson stated to the committee that he had received numerous complaints about the saloon, among them being anonymous letters.

Gordon, one of the owners, denied that he had been conducting a disorderly saloon. The committee recommended that the following licenses be granted: Joseph M. Silva, 851 Franklin street, Fred Lubben, 1955 Thirteenth avenue, A. Cordano and J. Lanella, 1801 Market street, Hartman and Fay, 452 Ninth street, John Nufor, 401 East Twelfth street, Joseph S. Gonsalves, 2005 Peralta street, Manuel Guido, 800 East Fourteenth street, Frank Courant, 410 Eighth street, A. Olander, 625 East Twelfth street, Golders, Brown and Company, 537 Thirteenth street, Frank Pereira, Eighth and Washington streets, Joseph Raymond, Sixteenth and Campbell streets, Springer and Engelhardt, 849 Broadway, Harry Fortune, 493 Telegraph avenue, D. F. McCarthy, 1799 Sixteenth street, O. L. Foster, 101 San Pablo avenue, Peter Milnech, 485 San Pablo avenue, and J. C. Hansen, Eleventh and Webster streets.

The applications of J. Ghiglioli, of fifty-fifth street and Telegraph avenue, and Charles Hansen and Alex Hansen, of 744 Peralta street, were withdrawn. Strenuous protests were filed against the applicants of B. J. Davey, 1709 Market street, and A. Pizoli and G. Galino, 1170 Peralta street, and the applicants were allowed to withdraw their applications.

STILL WEARS COAT OF ICE

Southwest Continues to Suffer as a Result of the Bad Weather.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 18.—This portion of the Southwest is still plastered with a thick coating of ice. This condition has existed for 48 hours and today there was little prospect of immediate relief.

Late yesterday a warm rain fell but in the night freezing weather turned this into sleet, placing a third coating of ice over the ground and wires within a few days.

Telegraph and telephone service in all directions from Kansas City is still demoralized and trains are delayed.

GENERAL DAVIS VISITS SAN JUAN

SAN JUAN, P. R., Jan. 18.—General George W. Davis, formerly military governor of Porto Rico, who arrived yesterday on the steamer Cosmo from New York, is on his first visit to this city since he was turned over by the military government to the civil authorities in 1900. He is on a business trip. A reception was given in his honor at the palace last night.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS CURE SICK HEAD

Sick Headache and all the troubles attendant to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing the annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cure

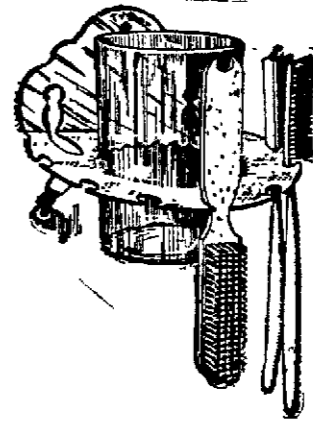

Acche they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, for they are so many ways that they will not be trifling to do without them. But after attack head

Is the base of so many ills that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not. Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not grip or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. CARTER MEDICINE CO., NEW YORK. Small Pill. Small Dose. One to a Customer From 5 Till 9 P. M. if They Last

At last we have a special to interest every man, woman and child in the city of Oakland, something useful, something ornamental, a necessity, several can be used in each home. Every child should be taught to take the best care of its teeth, then to have a place for the brushes and keep them in their place. This holder can be put on the wall in the bath room, near the sink, on the commode in the sleeping room or in any convenient place. As shown in the picture it is so designed as to hold a tumbler for water and a place for as many as seven brushes. This frame is made of nickled white metal and will not rust. The real value of this useful article is unestimable, but Saturday night from 5 till 9 P. M., if they last, one to a Customer, 10 cents. Come early as we expect to sell every one before nine o'clock.
